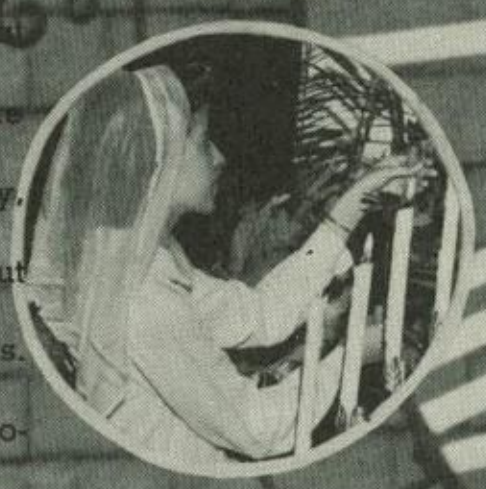
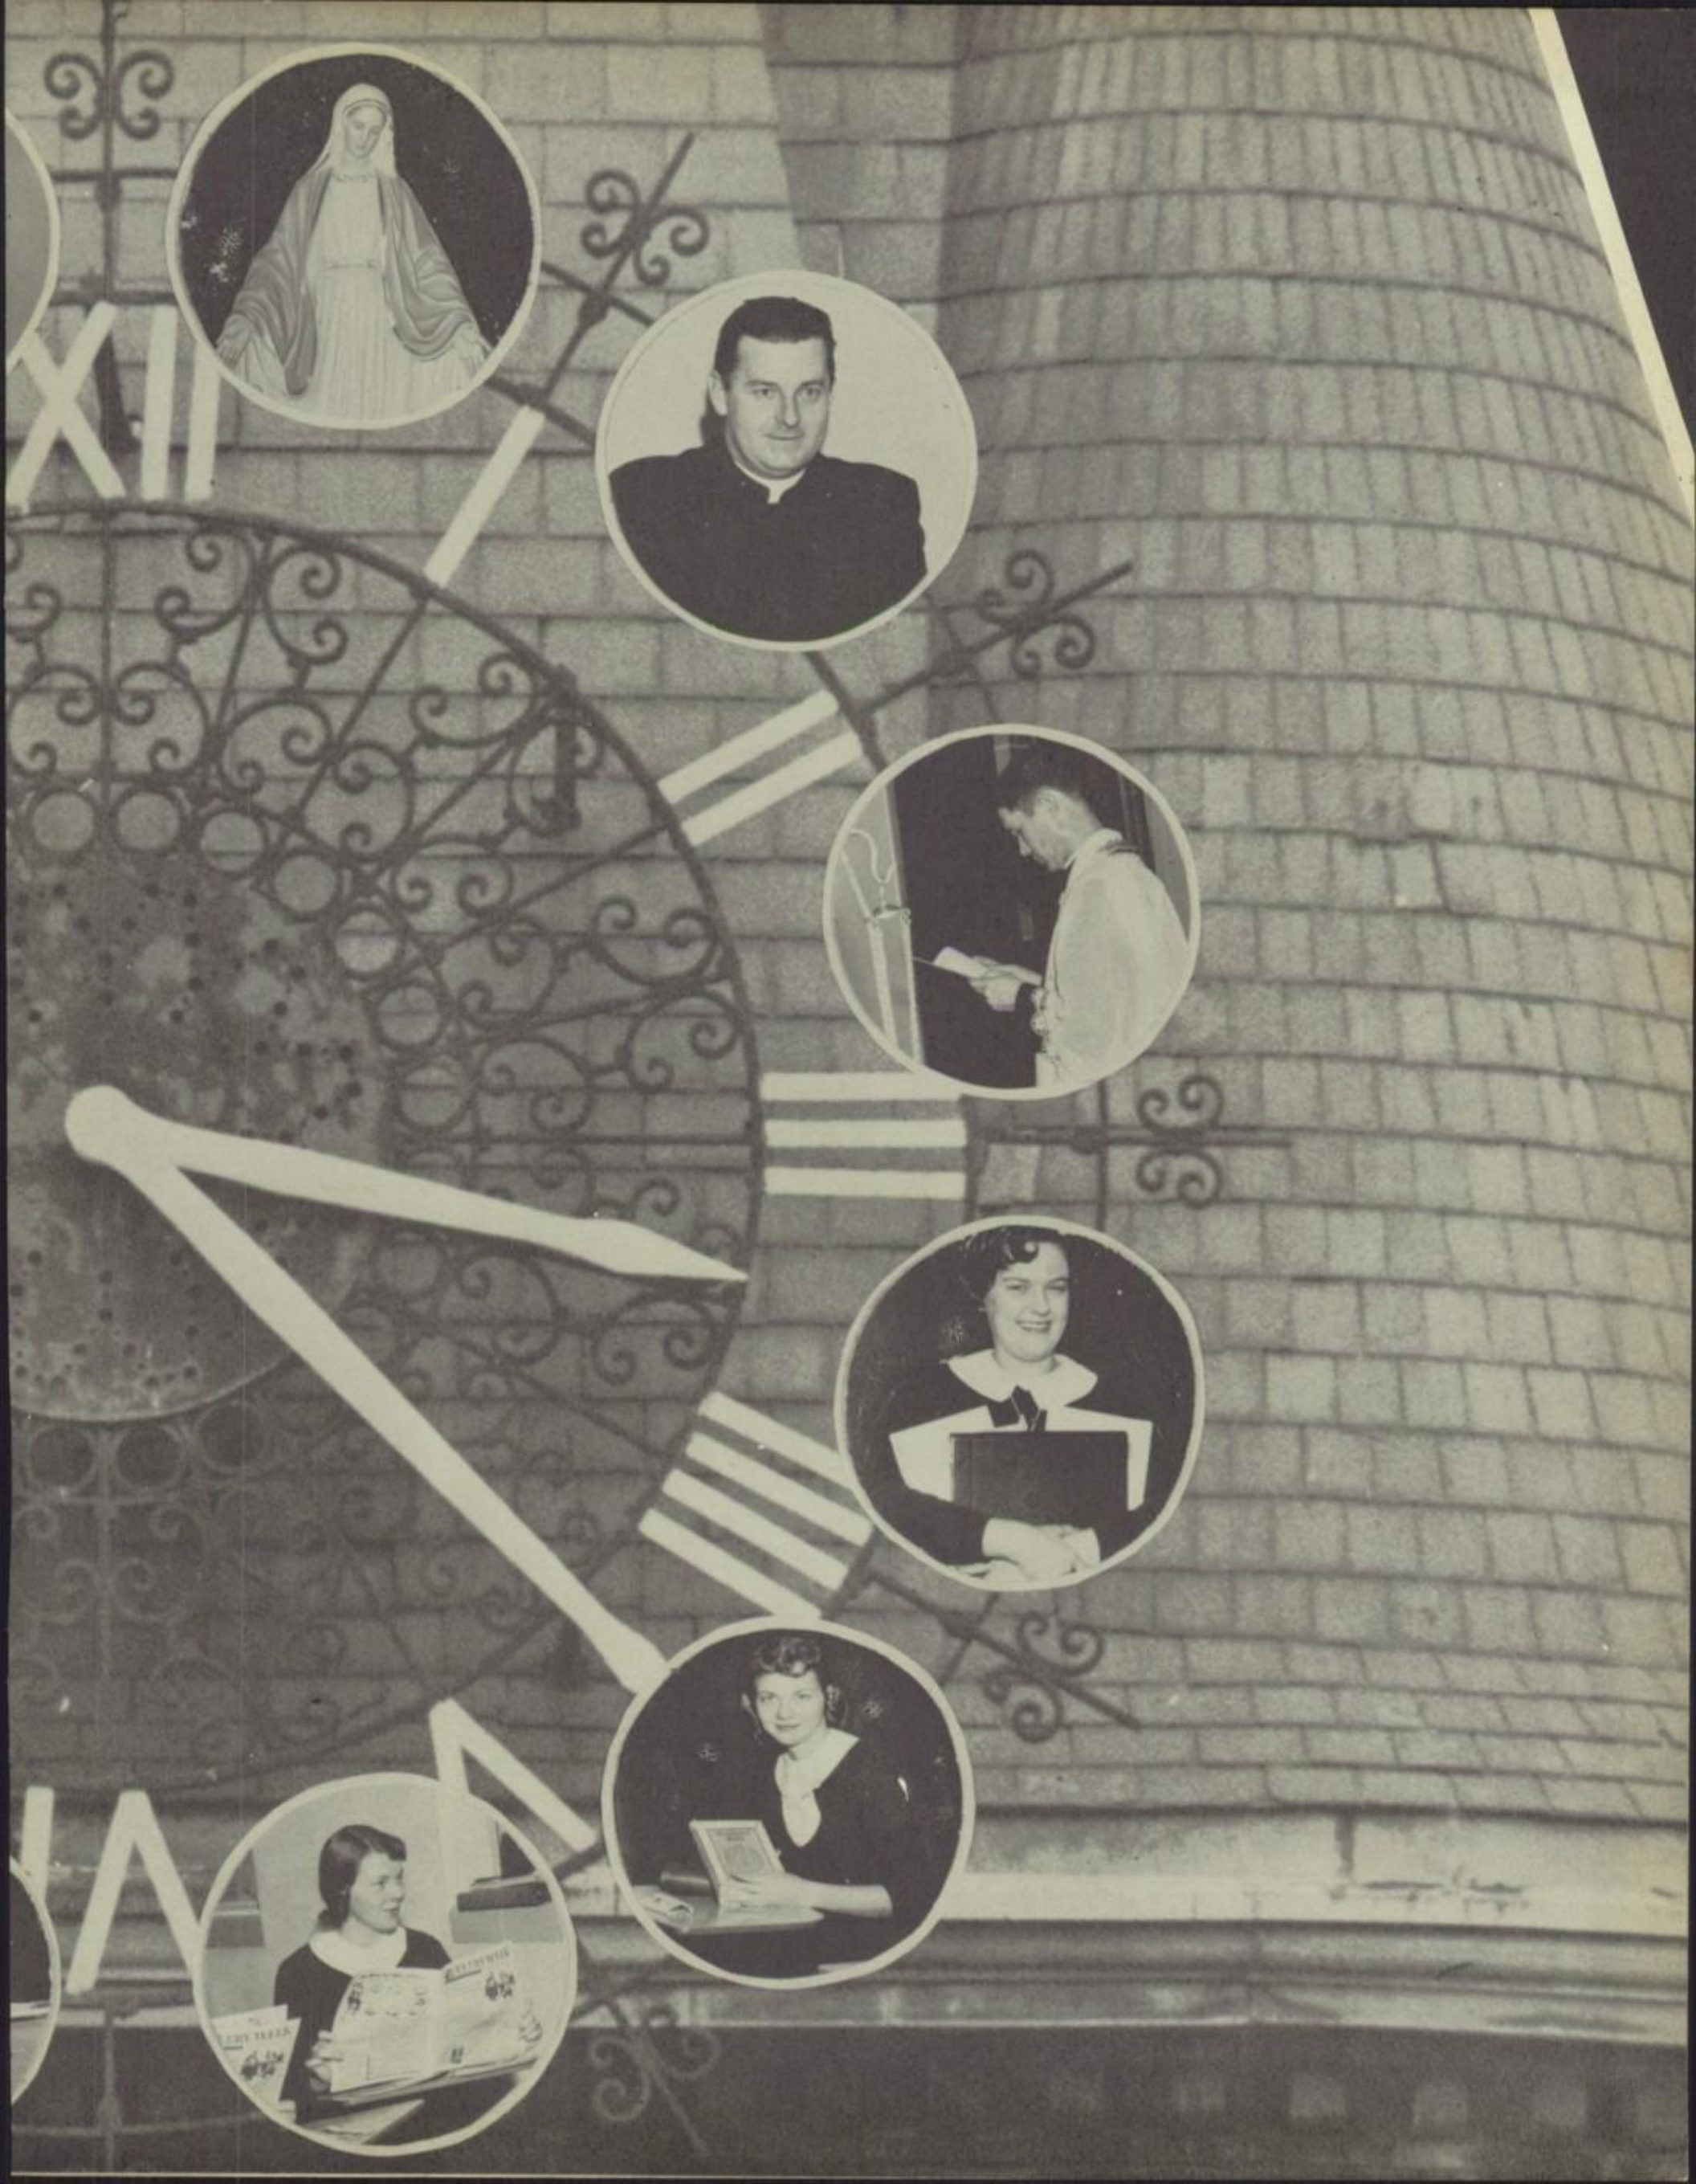
FOREWORD

"What are the years of time?
A little space of day, and then the night." But in that "little space" of time are many great, little, happy, sad, ordinary, unique, but always memorable moments. Here are some of these moments at Incarnate Word Academy captured and held for ransom in our memories.





Dear Sharon
Good luck in the future
years at IWA

Love
Carol

Good luck in the future

Dedication

WE DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK
TO THE SISTERS OF CHARITY
OF THE INCARNATE WORD
IN GRATITUDE FOR THE YEARS
OF SERVICE IN THE INTERESTS OF
YOUTH AT INCARNATE WORD ACADEMY

1932-1933 1957-1958

A world lost in a realm of time

Found a spark of hope sublime.

In France in 1866, there occurred

The founding of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word.

Through the zeal of Bishop Dubuis, the Order had its birth.

In Galveston, Texas it first displayed its worth.

From there the Sisters turned their efforts to San Antone;

Through their schools and hospital God became known.

St. Louis became in their lives a vital part

And in 1932 they there gave Incarnate Word Academy its start.

Through the years they portray that symbol of faith and

hope and truth

Leaving a lasting imprint of God on the heart of youth.

This is Senior Hall, the original Incarnate Word Academy which opened its doors to students in 1932.

"The true teacher must suffer and do. He must break bread to the people: he must go into Gethsemane and toil up the steep of Golgotha. . . . Sometimes I think that to be a woman and to serve and suffer as women do is to be the highest thing. Perhaps that is why I felt it proud and wondrous to be a teacher, for a teacher does that. I gave to the little lad I taught the very flesh and blood and breath that were my life; I breathed into him my spirit."

Of All Our School Years,
We'll Treasure This One

The Junior Class

The junior class has worked wonders with the aid of its officers: Margie Schmidt-President, Bridget Lawler-Vice-President, Kay Coughlin-Secretary, Jeanette McCann; and its monitor, Sister Josephine, in promoting a unity and friendship among its classmates and that of the rest of the student body. They worked hand in hand to start off the year with a "big bang" in planning the Junior Silver Tea, which was held at Eileen O'Keeffe's home on October 20. The tea was a huge success as the girls showed off their pretty sheaths and full dresses to one another, as everyone crowded into the house to get refreshments. As soon as the tea was concluded, the juniors began planning the Junior-Senior Prom which was held at Mercy on January 24. Everyone's dream was fulfilled as they danced to the beautiful music which all came to an end too quickly. Another unforgettable event was the Father-Daughter Banquet, to which we were escorted by such handsome dates as our own fathers. Then came the Junior-Senior Banquet, bidding a final farewell to the marvelous seniors in whose footsteps we will tread. It was a wonderful occasion at which we had a super-special time. And let us not forget Field Day when we ate, drank, and laughed to our heart's content. This year has been one of unforgettable experiences full of the pleasant memories of years to come.

Back To School Night Was A Big Success

Where do we go from here?

Gym class is mighty different these days.

"Back to School Night," held on October 22, was sponsored by the Fathers Club. The parents followed their daughters' schedules and relived their classroom days.

The angelic mood which prevailed in 304 won third place for the Juniors.

Stained Glass Windows and Ye Old Gift Shoppe provided a setting which merited Frosh Room 4 fourth place.

Christmas "Around the World" was the theme carried out in Sophomore I homeroom.

The angels and shepherds give glory to the Babe on that first Christmas night in the Sophomore homeroom 8.

Donna Zimmerman, Betty Scheppers and Kathy Roe proudly exhibit the first prize their homeroom won in the "Room Beautiful for Christmas Contest", which was sponsored by the Art Club.

In this freshmen homeroom the shepherds come from near and the Magi from far to pay homage to the New-Born King.

Jeanette Trampe and Carolyn Theobold prepare for the King's coming.

The main "Light" Staff is composed of (clockwise) Kay Quante, Circulation Manager; Mary Ann Urban, Editorial Assistant; Marilyn Scheer, Editor; Bridget Lawler, Business Manager; Alice Foy, Editorial Assistant; Carol Ann Peters, Assistant Editor.

Marilyn Monahan, Mary Ann Clavin, and Barbara Burns are the main characters in the skit held during National Newspaper Week.

Mr. John Hellman of the St. Louis Review smiles commendation as he criticizes the school paper, while Alice Foy, Marilyn Scheer, Sister Evangela, Mary Ann Urban, and Carol Ann Peters look on.

"Well, did you all have fun at the Junior Silver Tea?" asks Mrs. O'Keeffe, Eileen O'Keeffe, Margie Schmidt, Bridget Lawler, Kay Coughlin, Jeanette

"Boy! This sure tastes good," remark Kay Coughlin, Margie Schmidt, Bridget Lawler, Mary Martin, Beverly Kemp, Jeanette McCann, and Ann Stan.

"Our first chance to sit down!" sighs Kathy Gallagher, Barbara Hill, Kay Toulster, and Donna Downey.

In the famous "Preface", Shaw describes "Arms and the Man", written in 1894 at the start of his career as a playwright, as the first of his "pleasant" plays. The title derives from the first line of Dryden's translation of Vergil: "Arma virumque cano". During the first London production of "Arms and the Man" in 1895, one of the gallery-gods booed. Shaw quipped back: "I quite agree with you, my friend, but what can we two do against so many?" The popular verdict has outlived the playwright. "Arms and the Man" was the first full-length Shaw play made into a movie; it also provided the basis for the "Chocolate Soldier", the Oscar Strauss operetta, which Shaw himself never saw, and which was described in the program of the first London production as an "unauthorized parody" of the play.

Dom Columba Cary-Elwes, O. S. B., renowned author and scholar, addressed the student body in American Education Week.

Veiled-Prophet Queen, Carol Culver and Mrs. Lucille McNulty spark the sale of TB pins, as Carol, Caraffa and Mary Martin learn the technique.

Paul Hume, famous author on Church music and renowned for his outspoken criticism of Margaret Truman's voice which drew the Presidential-Papa's ire, chats with Carol Ann Peters and Mary Ann Urban.

"What's your line?" is the query put to well-known columnist Bennet Cerf by Mary Ann Urban and Carol Peters.

Carol Peters interviews Miss Amy Vanderbilt, the foremost authority on manners, as she comments on modern teenagers.

The TB patch test was administered. "Now girls, this won't hurt a bit," assures Dr. W. A. Mullarky to Kay Gschwender, Paula Koupal, and Delores Bright, as Miss Alta Royal and Mrs. Alice Mason look on.

At the faculty meeting problems are adequately taken care of.

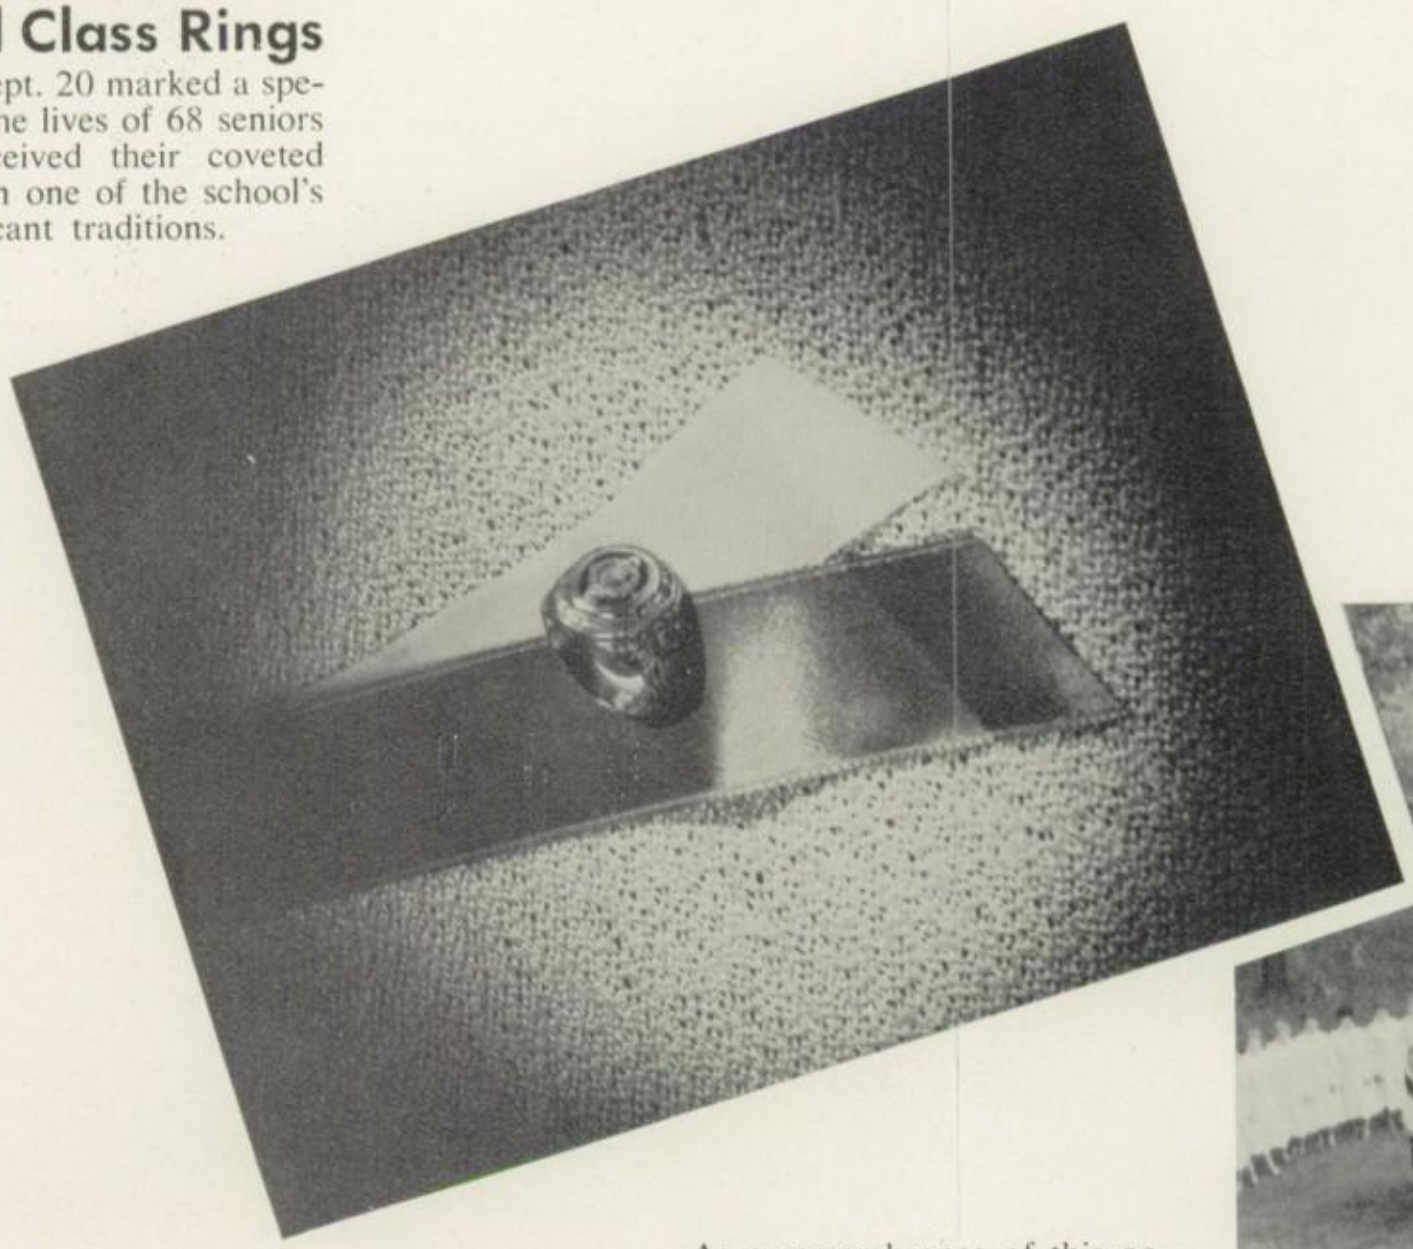
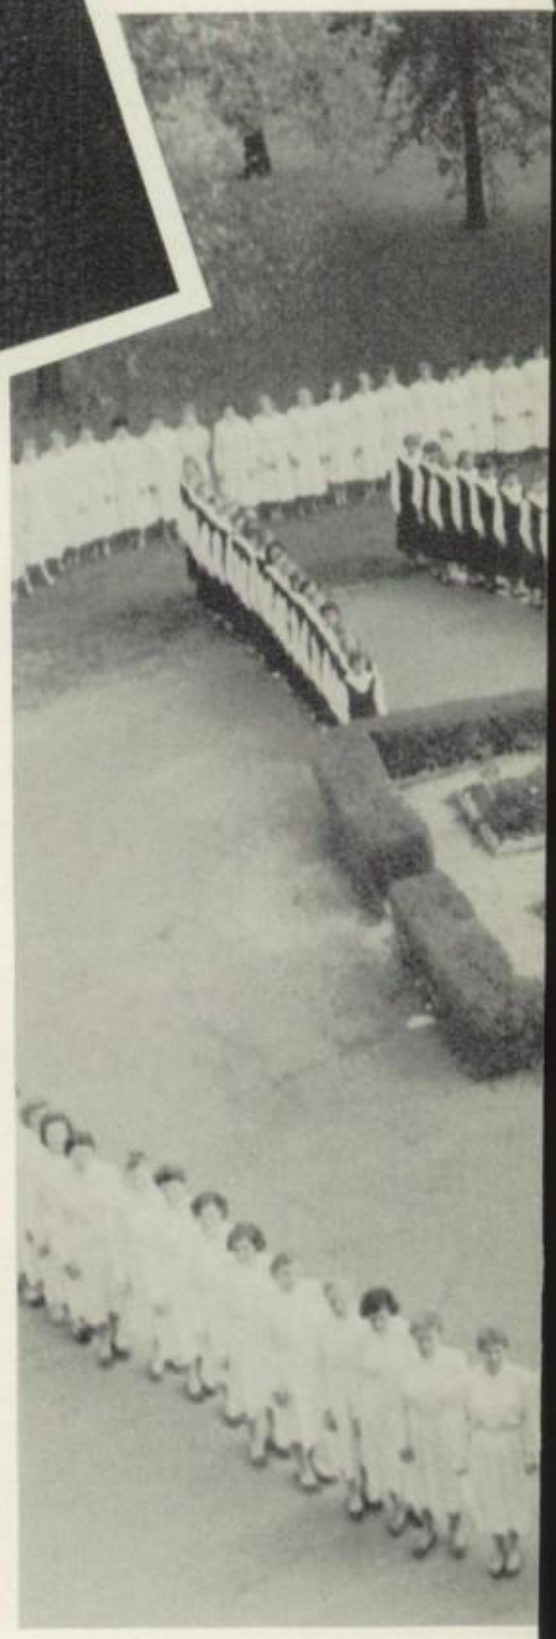
68 Seniors Receive Blessed Class Rings

Friday, Sept. 20 marked a special day in the lives of 68 seniors as they received their coveted class rings in one of the school's most significant traditions.



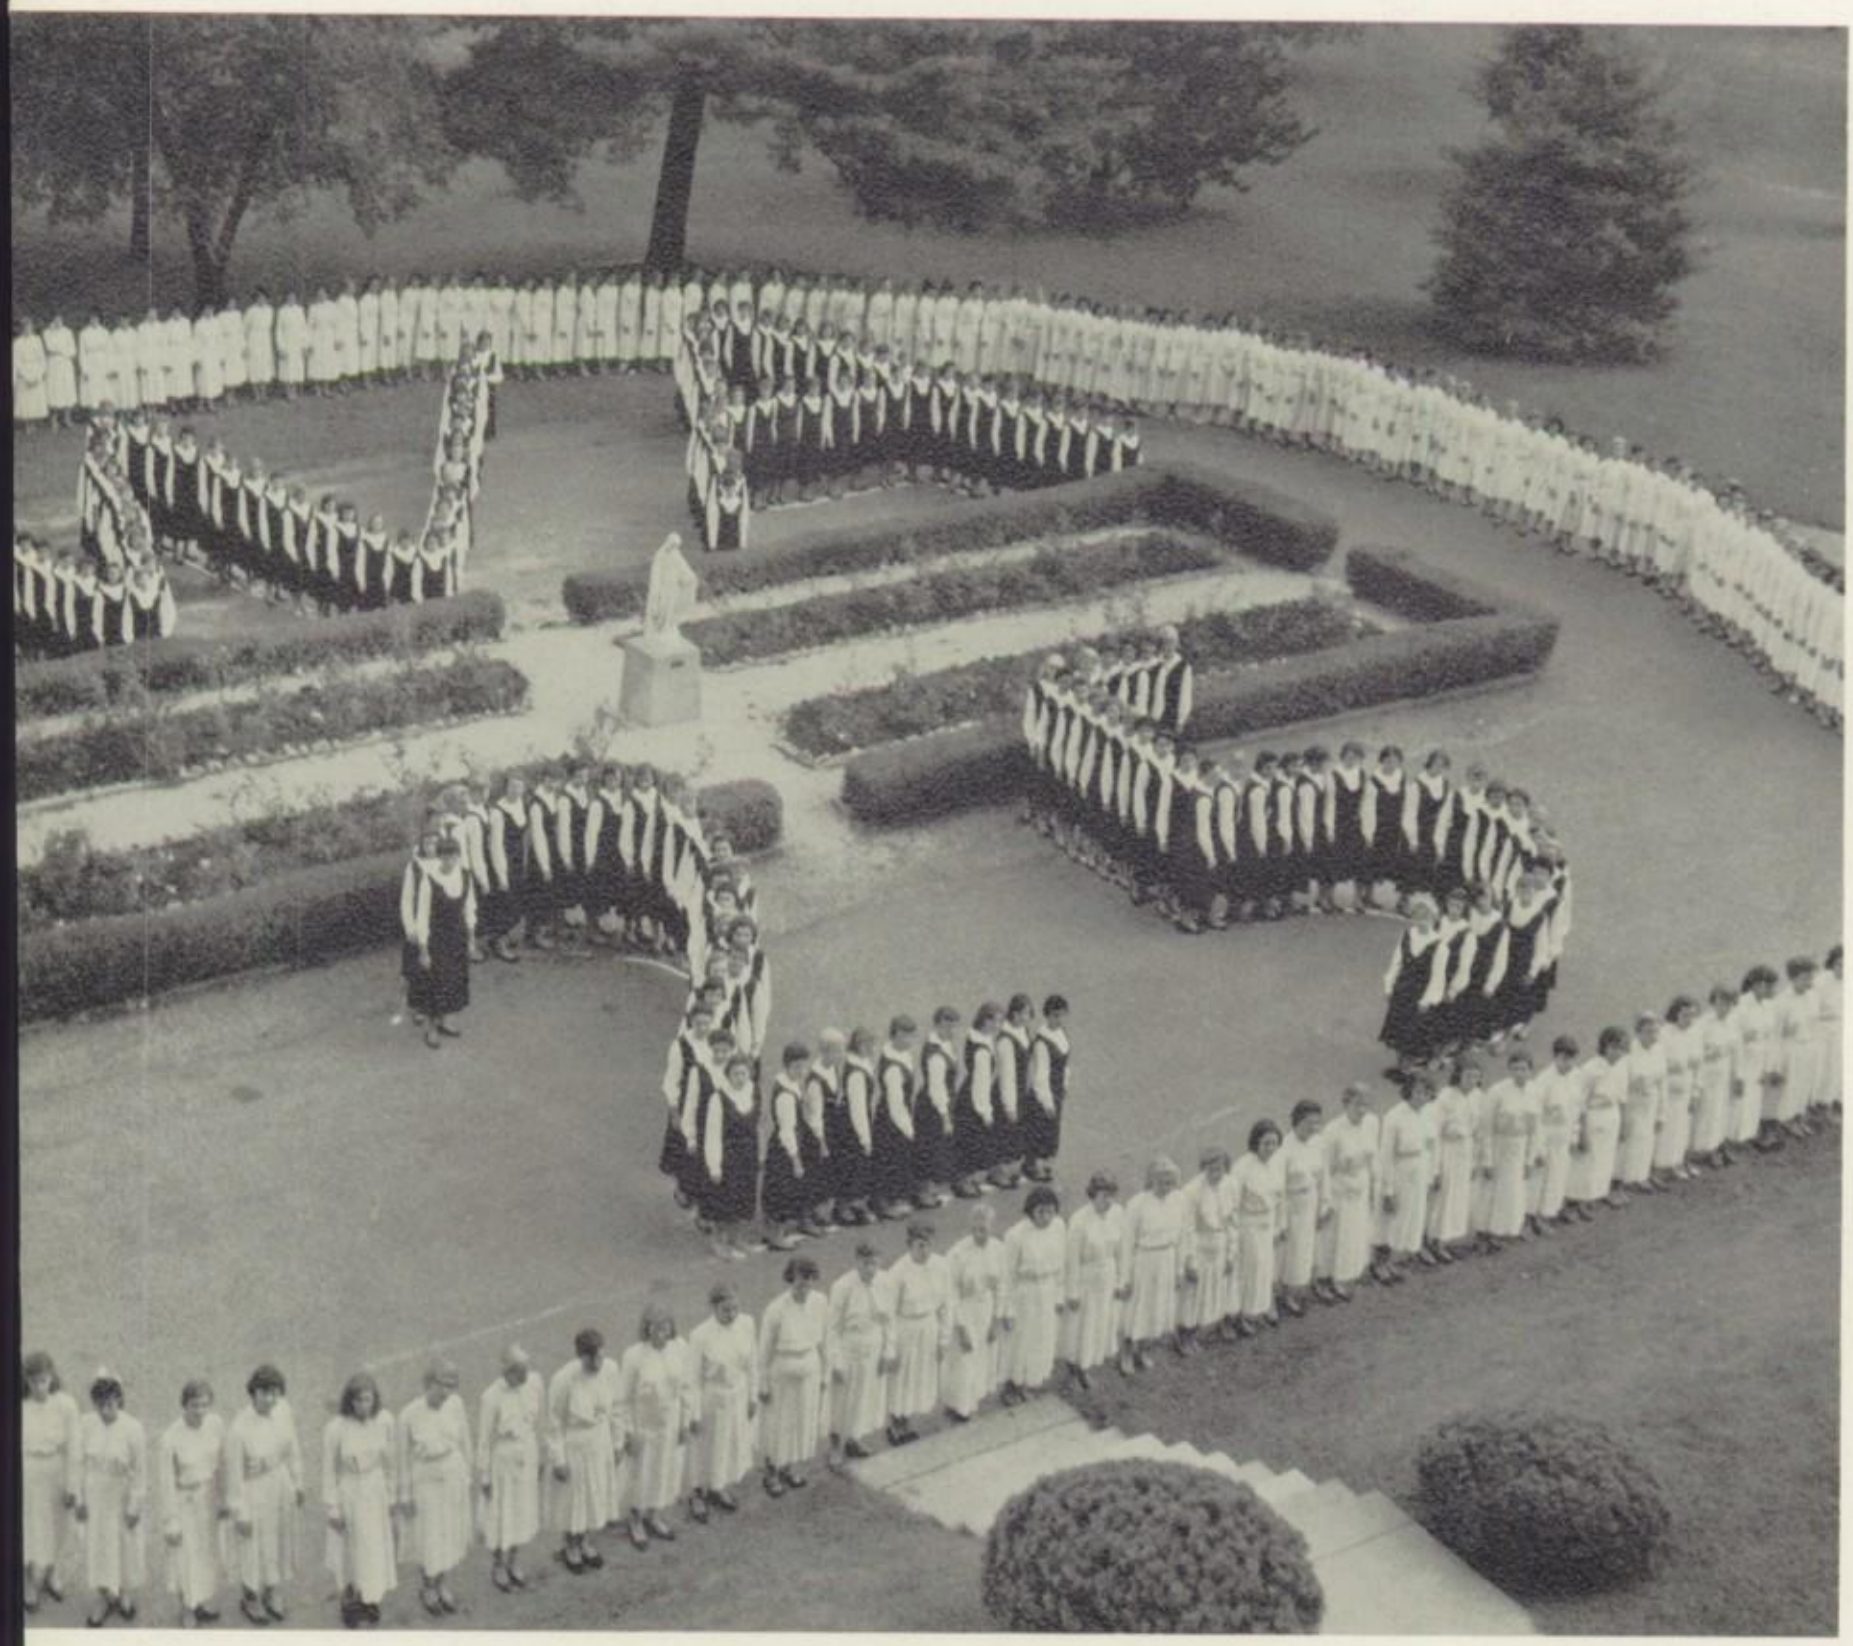


As a remembrance of this occasion, a picture was taken with the seniors in blue uniforms forming a "25" in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the school, and the freshmen forming the letters "I W A," while the sophomores and juniors, in contrasting white uniforms, formed the class ring.

The ring is made of ten carat gold with a sardonynx stone upon which is raised the emblem of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, a crown of thorns encircling the monogram of the Holy Name of Jesus, I. H. S., under which is a heart surmounted by three nails and bearing the motto, "Amor Meus."

Above and below the emblem are a fleur-de-lis and a star significant of the City of St. Louis, and of the foundation of the Incarnate Word Order in Lyons, France, in 1639, and subsequent extension to Texas in 1866.

This is the same class ring that has been used since the founding of the Academy.



The team and cheerleaders cheer their opponents.

Cheerleaders Janet Clark, Kay Dulle, and Alice Rothermick lead the crowd in cheers.

Angie D'Amato, our mascot, is the daughter of a former graduate of I. W. A., Mrs. Katy Crump D'Amato.

Nerinx cheerleaders at a game between IWA and Nerinx.

IWA Mascot Angie D'amato is encircled by cheerleaders, (clockwise) Sue Littlefield, Carol Joller, Kay Dulle - Captain, Sharon Stuecker, Janet Clark, Jenny Roe and Noreen Lane.

"Incarnate, Incarnate, Rah, Rah, Rah!" yell cheerleaders, standing: Noreen Lane, Jenny Roe, Janet Clark; kneeling: Sue Littlefield, Sharon Strecker, Carol Joller, Kay Dulle; front: IWA mascot Angie D'amato.

"Hey Hey! Look at that score. That's okay but we want more," shout faithful Incarnate fans.

In the Silver Jubilee Pageant these girls play the roles of the postulants in their bridal gowns as they prepare to receive the holy Habit of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word from Bishop Forest played by Mr. Joe Teiber. Girls are: Gretchen Koob, Pat Behlmann, Carol Ann Peters, Mary Lou Harding, Mary Martin and Carolyn Hahn.

Scenes From The Silver Jubilee Pageant

"Behold, I Come!" presented on April 18 and 20, 1958.

Mr. Gene Repetto, vice-president of the Fathers' Club portrays St. Francis of Assisi giving the brown robe of the Franciscans to St. Clare, portrayed by Mary Lou Reames, senior.

Mr. Joe Teiber, member of the Executive Board of the Fathers' Club, impersonates Bishop Forest of San Antonio as he gives the portions of the religious Habit to the novices of 1905. Novices are played by Charlene Rowinski, Karen Lesniak, Sandra Louis, Sharon Polzin, and Elizabeth Oesch.

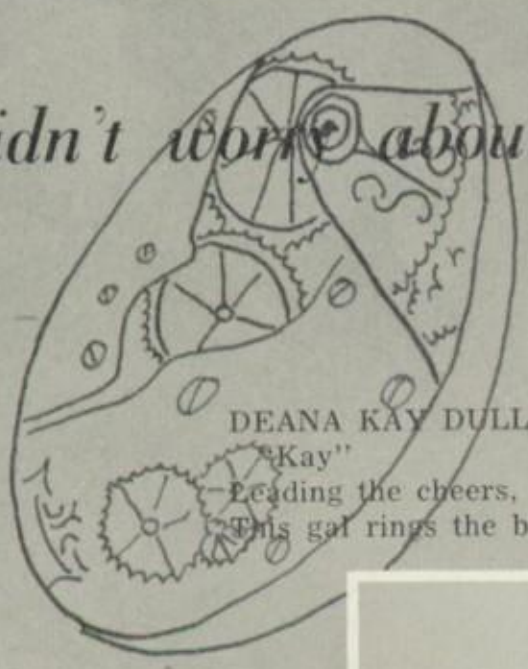
Tall, blond and funny too
A unique combination found in few.



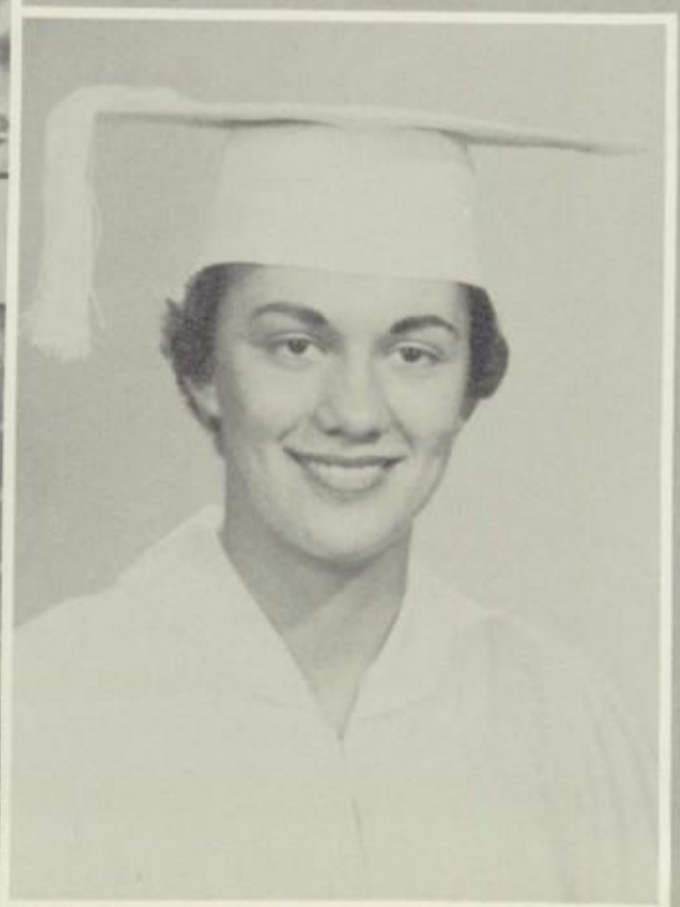
We didn't worry about the National Merit Scholarship Exam.

DEANA KAY DULLE
"Kay"
Leading the cheers, there we find Kay
This gal rings the bell in every way.

JOSEPHINE ANN DURNIL
"Jo Ann"
Jo Ann's loyalty is nothing new
Her friends know she's always true.

We were sure we'd make it:

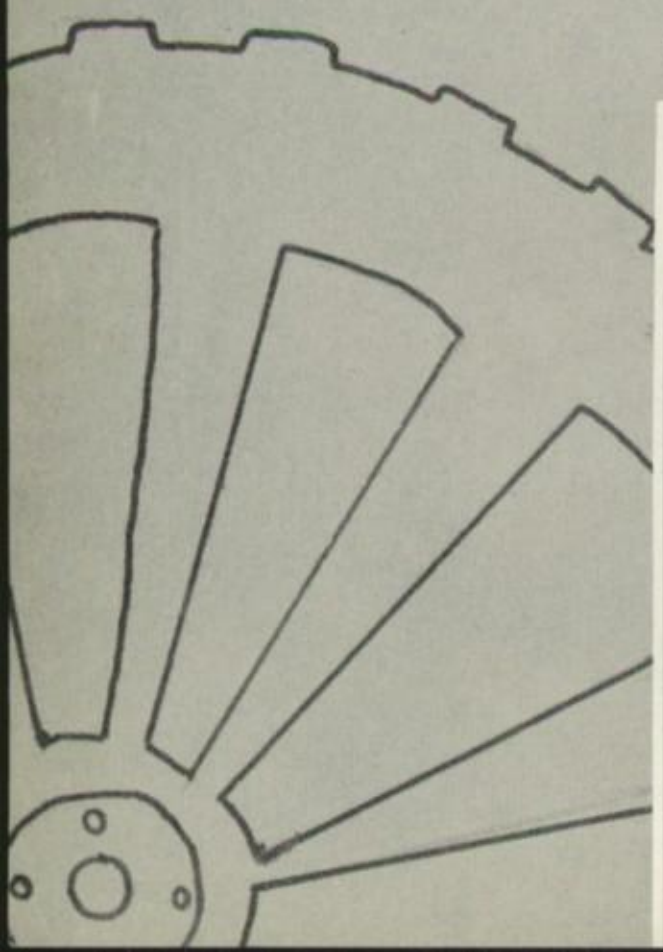
DOROTHY HELEN ETTLING
"Dot"
Her Majesty, Queen of the Court is Dot
Her fantabulous ways rate on top.



JACQUELYNN MARIE FREISE
"Jackie"
Jackie is one who is sure of success
Wherever help is needed her answer is yes.

We loved the three witches in Macbeth

ROMA JO FULTS
"Roma"
Vivacious, merry and full of pep,
This kid really keeps in step.



PATRICIA ANN FUNKE
"Pat"
Blonde hair, blue eyes, cheerful and gay,
A darling maid for Miss I. W. A.

But we didn't love the test

ELIZABETH ANN GESSNER
"Beth"
A nicer kid could never be found
For lots of success Beth is bound.

KATHERINE MARY GSCHWENDER
"Kay"
Laughing and jolly--she's all right
In all her fun, her friends delight

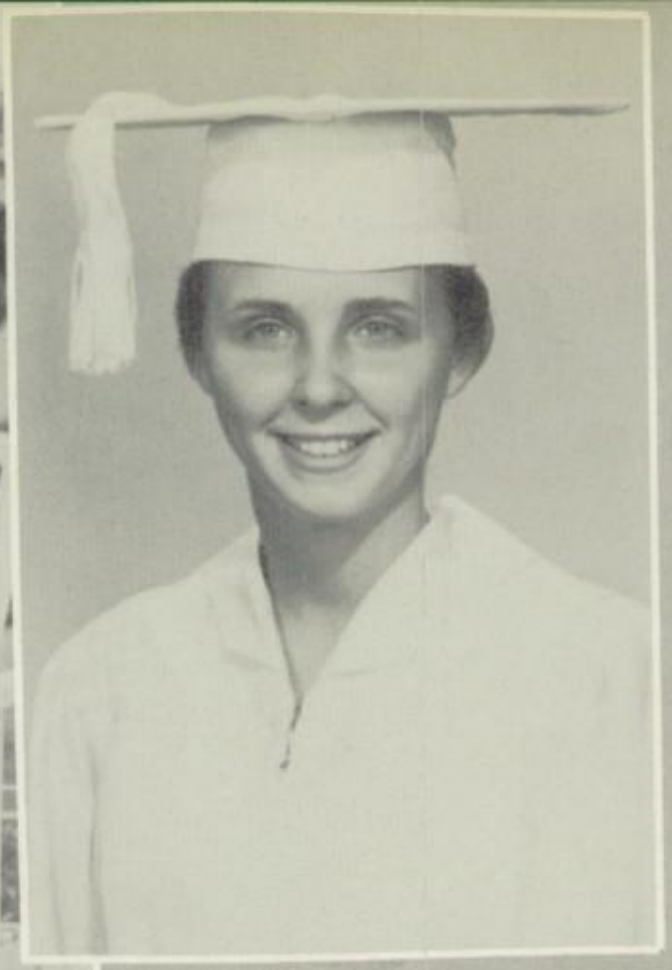
Our closed retreat at C B C was wonderful

PATRICIA ANN GROTE
"Pat"
Her wit and courage with us rate high
Pat keeps us in stitches as the days fly by.

NOEL FRANCES HACKMANN
"Noel"
No matter the time, no matter the place
There's always a smile on Noel's face.

We promised to be good forever

BEVERLY ANN HANEBRINK
"Bev"
Calm, sensible, sweet as well
Bev, is what this must spell.



MARGARET MARY HELLEBUSCH
"Busch"
Fair of skin and light of hair
With smile so arch and debonaire.

The Prom was really "Fascination."

JUDITH ANN HILLEBRAND
"Judy"
A barrel of fun but quiet and sweet,
Here's a a kid that can't be beat.

BARBARA ANNE HOWE
"Barb"
Howie's a gal that's really the most;
Her get up and go deserves our toast.

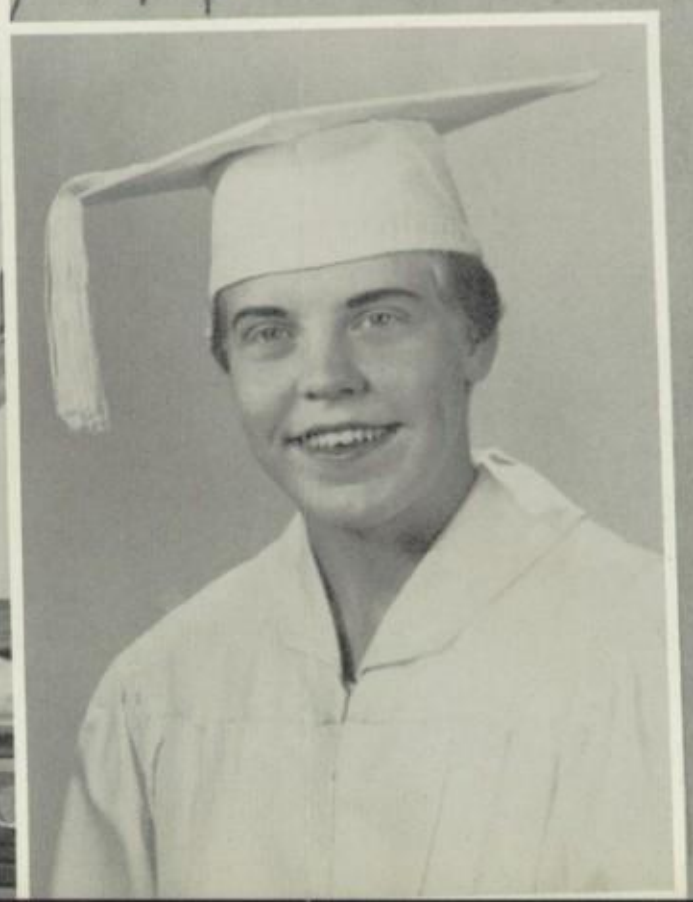
And we were all fascinated

MARY CLARE HUMMEL
"Hums"
Here's a chick that's really on the ball;
As a good leader she's acclaimed by all.

MARY ANN INCHIOSTRO
"May"
For her, music is a pleasure
With us -- she shares her treasure.

We were so proud of sponsoring the Dublin Players

KATHLEEN ANN JACOBY
"Jacob"
When it comes to "thinking" Jacob is the one
Although very smart she's still lots of fun.



CAROL ANN JOLLER
"Carol"
Patience and gentleness are power
For that lovely girl Joller.

And we enjoyed "Arms and The Man"

JO ANN MAY KEMP
"Jo Ann"
Whenever there's anything that has to be done
You can depend on her to be the helpful one.

MARY PAULA KOUPAL
"Paula"
Upon her face a calmness rests
A charm which few possess

Some of us went to Chicago to the SSCA

GERALDINE ANN KRUEGER
"Gerry"
She has all that is needed to make one merry
This cute little gal with the nickname Gerry.

MARY NOREEN LANE
"Noreen"
Brisk and cheery whenever she's met
A real sweet gal hard to forget.

Some went to Philadelphia to the MACY

SUSAN ANN LITTLEFIELD
"Sue"
Chuck full of fun and everything newsy
You sure can't beat that gal named Susie.

MARY ANN LYLES
"Mare"
Never was there found a truer friend
Sweet and sincere, right to the end.

We got poems published in Young America Sings

SABINA JEAN MAINIERI
"Bea"
This tiny, talented bundle of fun
Besides yearbook and sports honors, an oscar has won.

MARY FRANCES MARTIN
"Dee Dee"
Because she has a winning way
Her chums' opinions she can sway.

And we saw our essays in Young America Reads

MAUREEN CATHERINE McCORMACK
"Maureen"
In the field of sports her skill is shown
And she has a magic smile all of her own.

JANE CATHERINE McDERMOTT
"Janie"
Lively, witty and certainly cute
For Jane you could find no substitute.

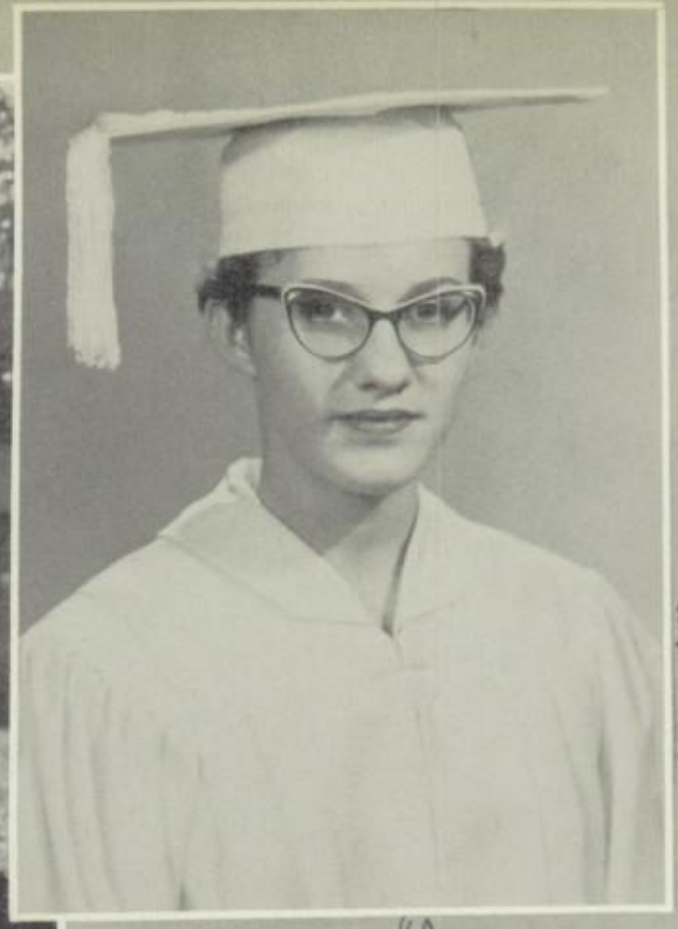
We cheered our representative at C B C dance

MARY KATHERINE McKENZIE
"Mary Kay"
Dear to the hearts of all her friends
Her cheerfulness she gladly lends.

SUZANNE GRACE McNULTY
"Sue"
Her eyes are music and her voice is song;
With a girl like Sue you can't go wrong.

And we did the same for our representative at SLUH dance

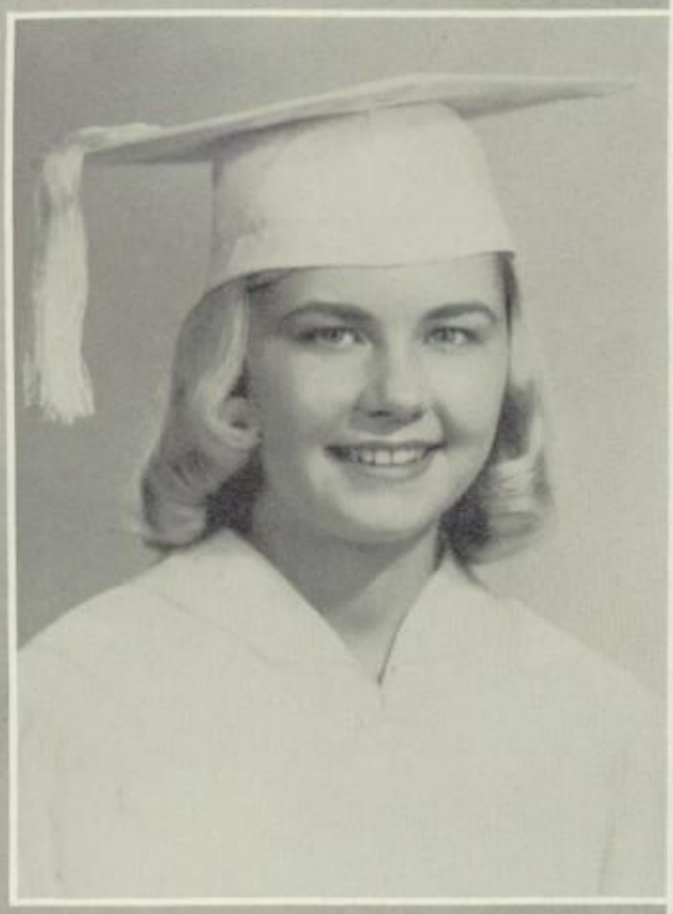
PATRICIA ANN MEAGHER
"Pat"
A lovely girl, chic, and petite
Always planning some lively treat.



JO ANN MORTON
"Joann"
She is one on whom you can depend
Her perseverance has no end.

We practiced and practiced for public speaking class

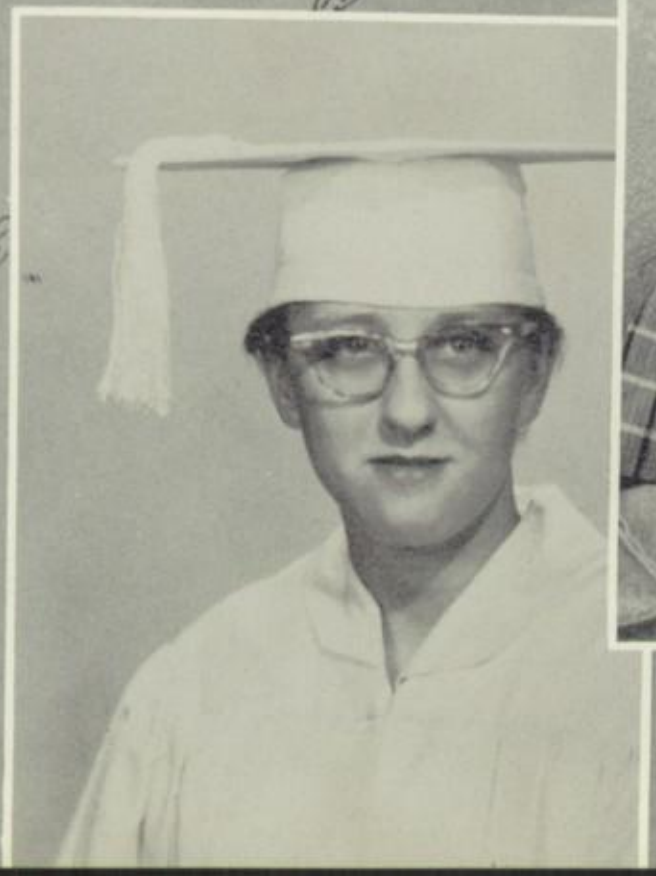
LINDA JOYCE NASH
"Linda"
Gentle and serious she goes her sweet way
With a heart full of kindness, and little to say.



MARY JOHANNA O'KEEFE
"Beef"
Vim and vigor and plenty of steam
This cheery chick really sparked the team.

And we made mistakes anyway

NANCY LEE NORMAN
"Nancy"
This intelligent girl we love to meet
Who is always smiling and ever so sweet.

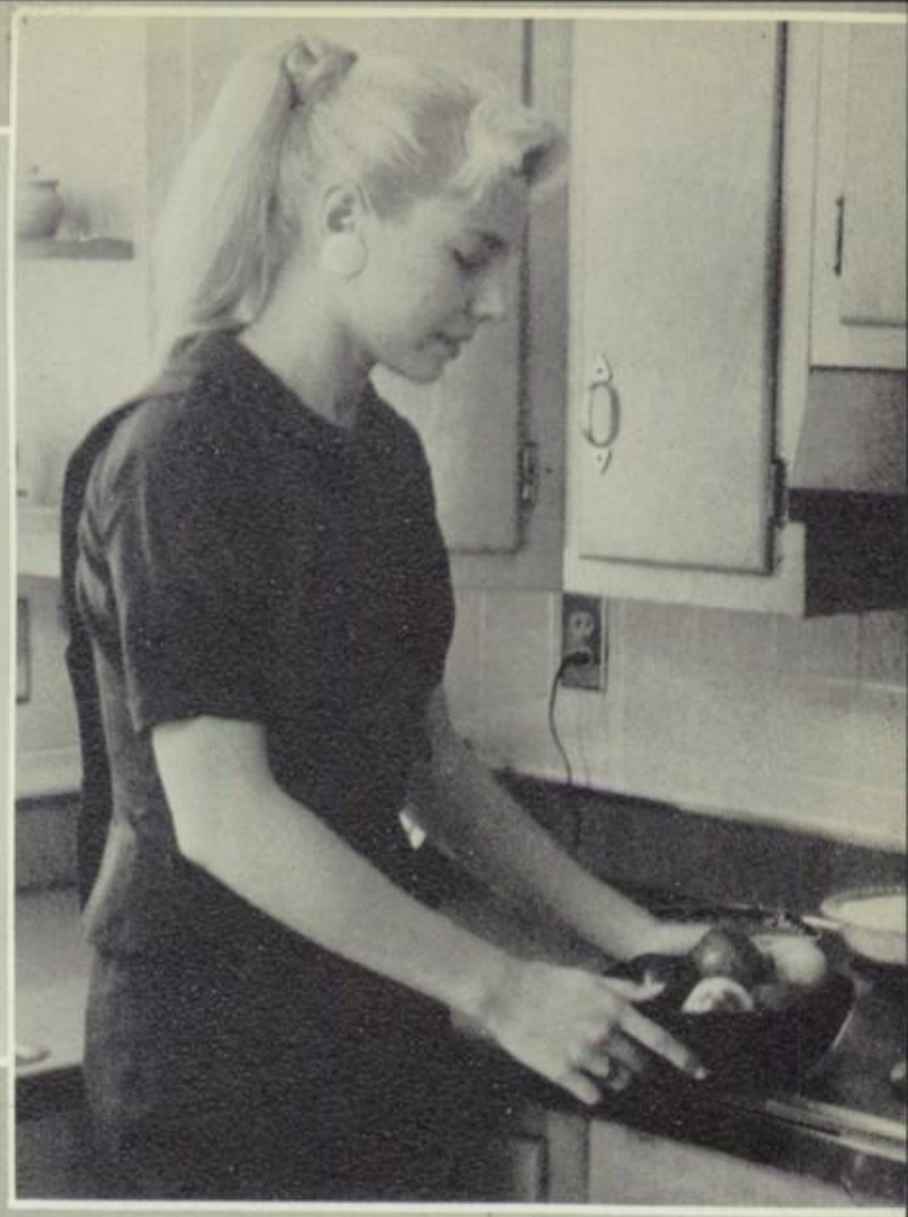


JUDITH ANN PAYEUR
"Judy"
Judy's friendship and cheer never end
Her laughter and gaiety always extend.

We came late for our noon classes

KATHRYN ANN QUANTE
"Kay"
When Kay's features begin to beam
Into her eyes is born a mischievous gleam

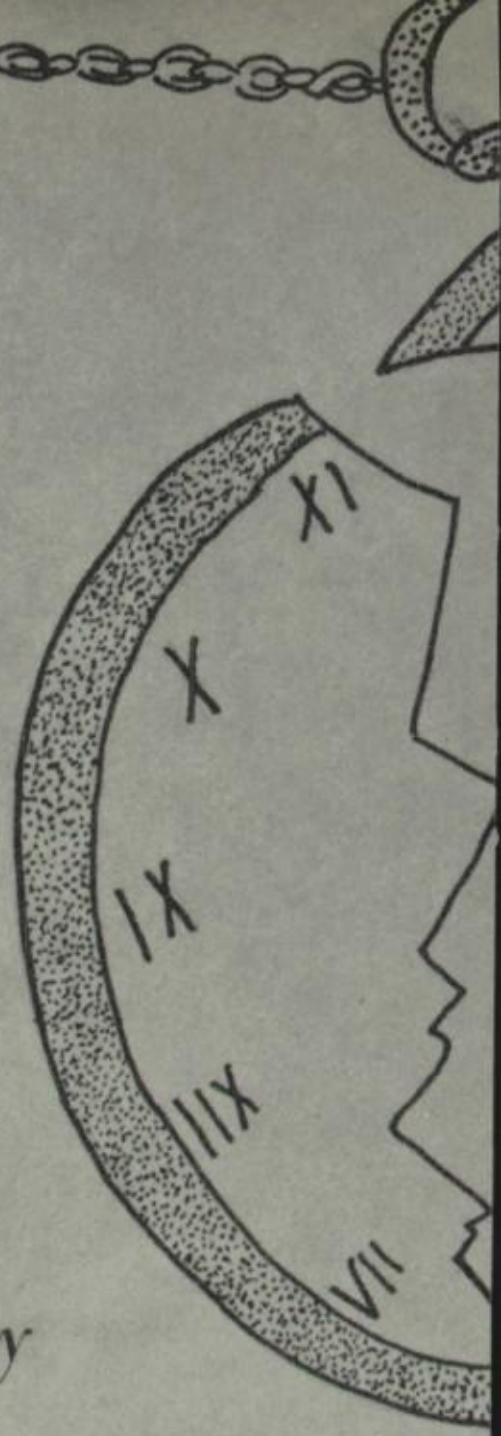
MARY LOUISE REAMES
"Louie"
Her spirit blends with her golden hair
Name the game and "Louie's" there.



And we had to write essays after school:

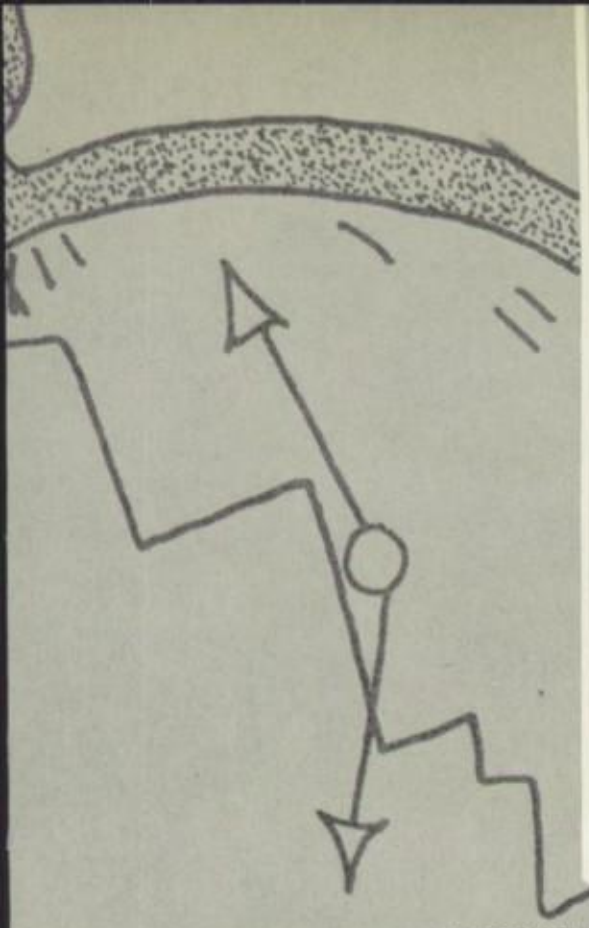
ALICE MARY ROTHERMICH
"Ozzie"
Personality Plus, with looks made to match
When put all together, you've got quite a catch.

CAROL ANN RYAN
"Carol"
Always laughing and friendly is she
Always happy Carol will be.



We borrowed books from the library

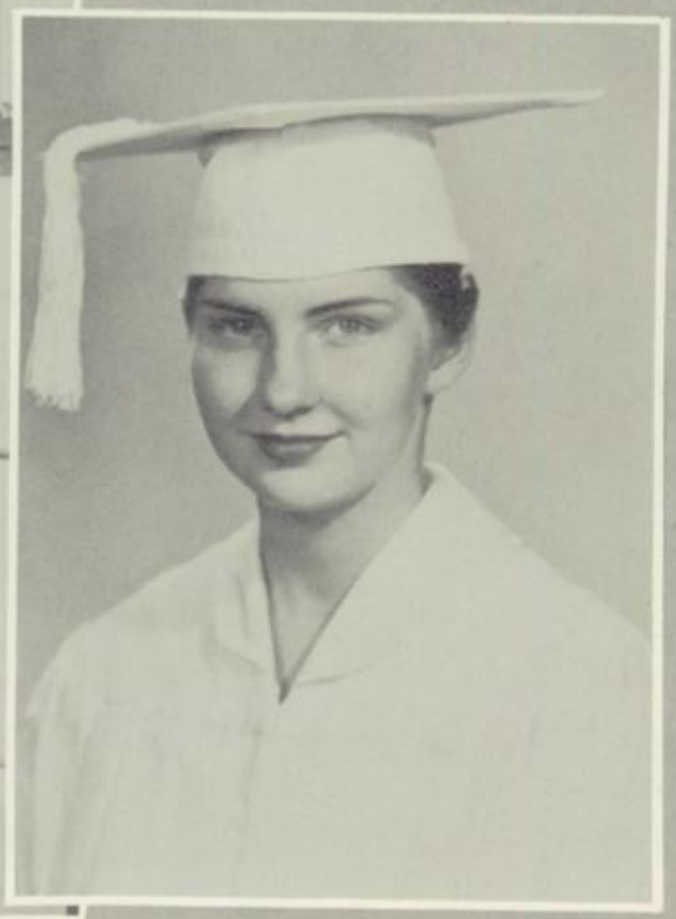
CAROLYN ANN SANSONE
"Carol"
Never a care or worry has she
A light-hearted girl as you can see.



MARGARET MARY SCHAEFER
"Margie"
Pretty and serious but still always gay
She's willing and helpful anytime of day.

And we had to pay overdue fines

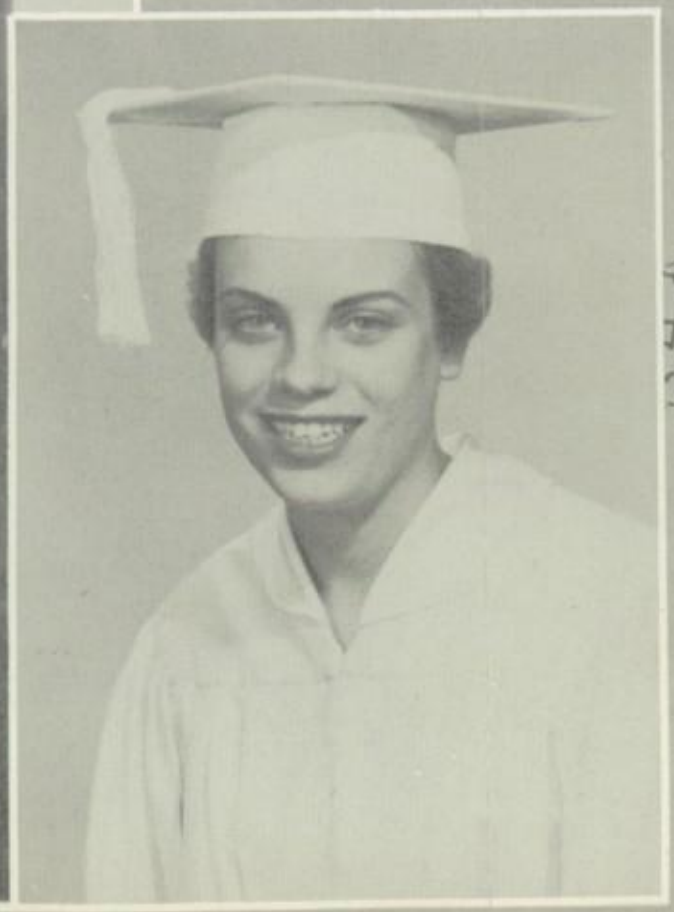
MARILYN SCHEER
"Marlin"
Many talents has she, and in all them excel
But she's lively, cute, and fun as well.



JEAXENE MARCELLA SCHMIDT
"Schmitty"
Sympathetic, quick, and witty too
This cute little gal will always do.

We participated in the Silver Jubilee Pageant

JOAN CLAIRE SNELL
"Joan"
Not too serious, not too gay
An all-around girl in every way.



CAROL ANN STEIN
"Carol"
When there's a smile upon her face
Gloom moves to give the dimples place.

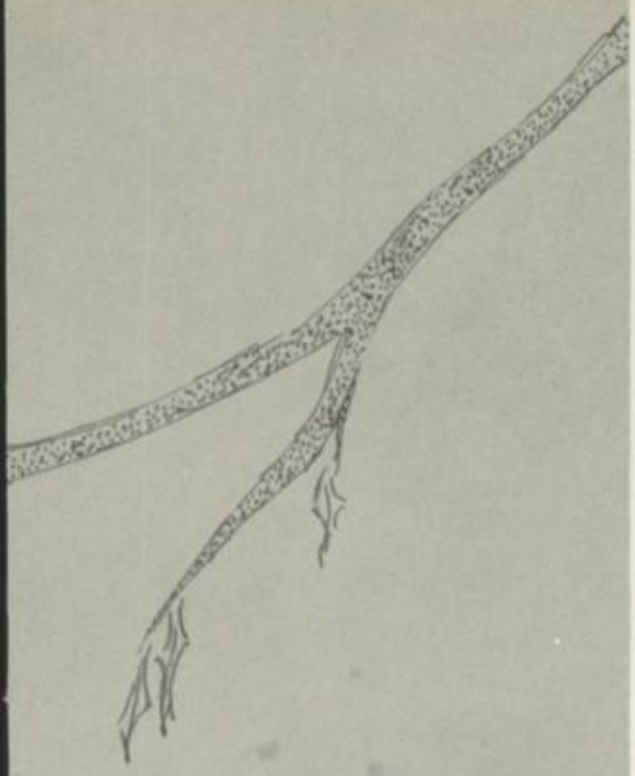
And we thought we were as good as Audrey Hepburn

GLORIA ANN STIEREN
"Glo"
Glo is a girl with a heart and a smile
One who makes the world worthwhile.

SHARON LOUISE STRECKER
"Sharon"
Small of stature, heart of gold
Sharon's a friend to young and old.

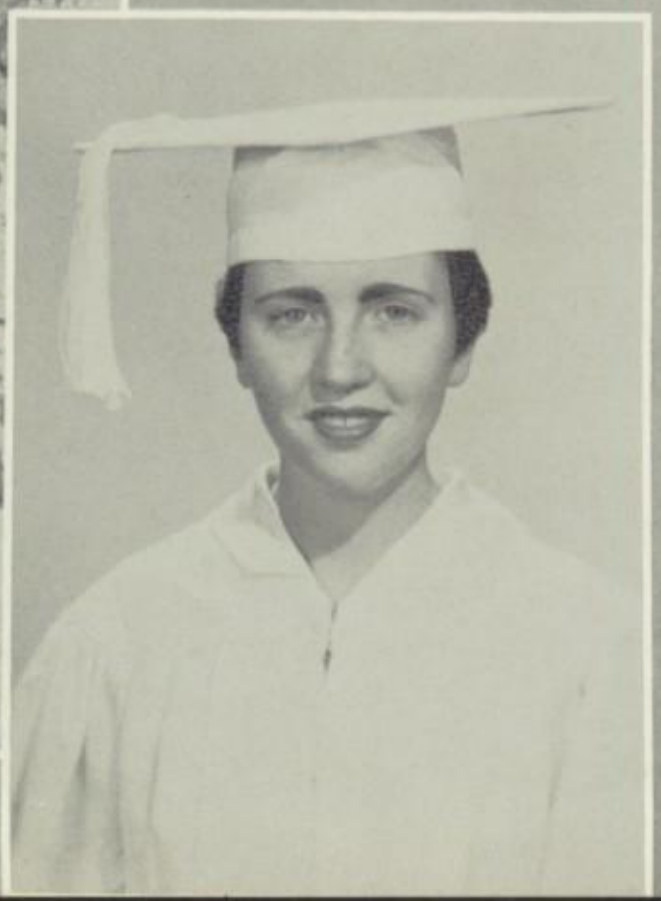
We listened to Carl Sandburg read his poems to his guitar

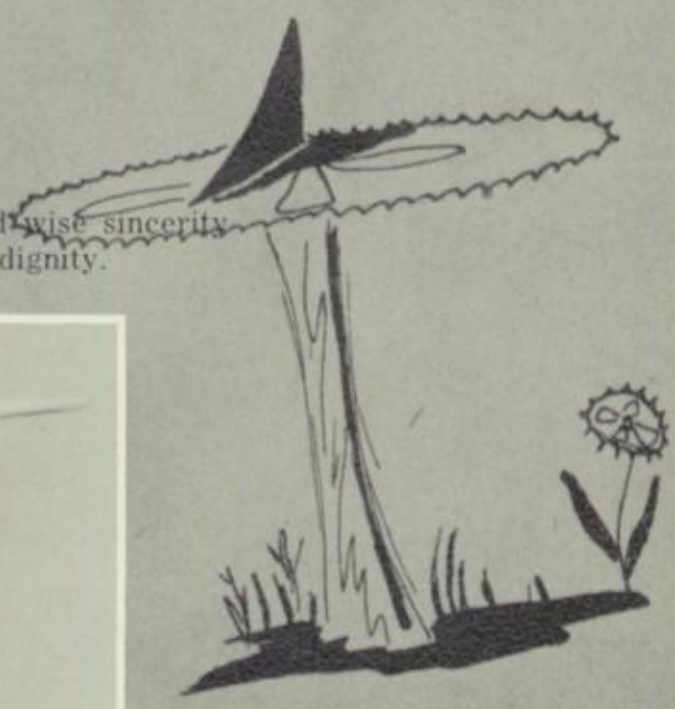
ELIZABETH JOAN STUECKEN
"Betty Jo"
If a friend you'd like to find
Here's one both true and kind.



MARGARET ANN TIERNEY
"Peggy"
The only title that seems to fit
For Peggy is "Queen of Wit."

And we thought there really must be something to poetry after all



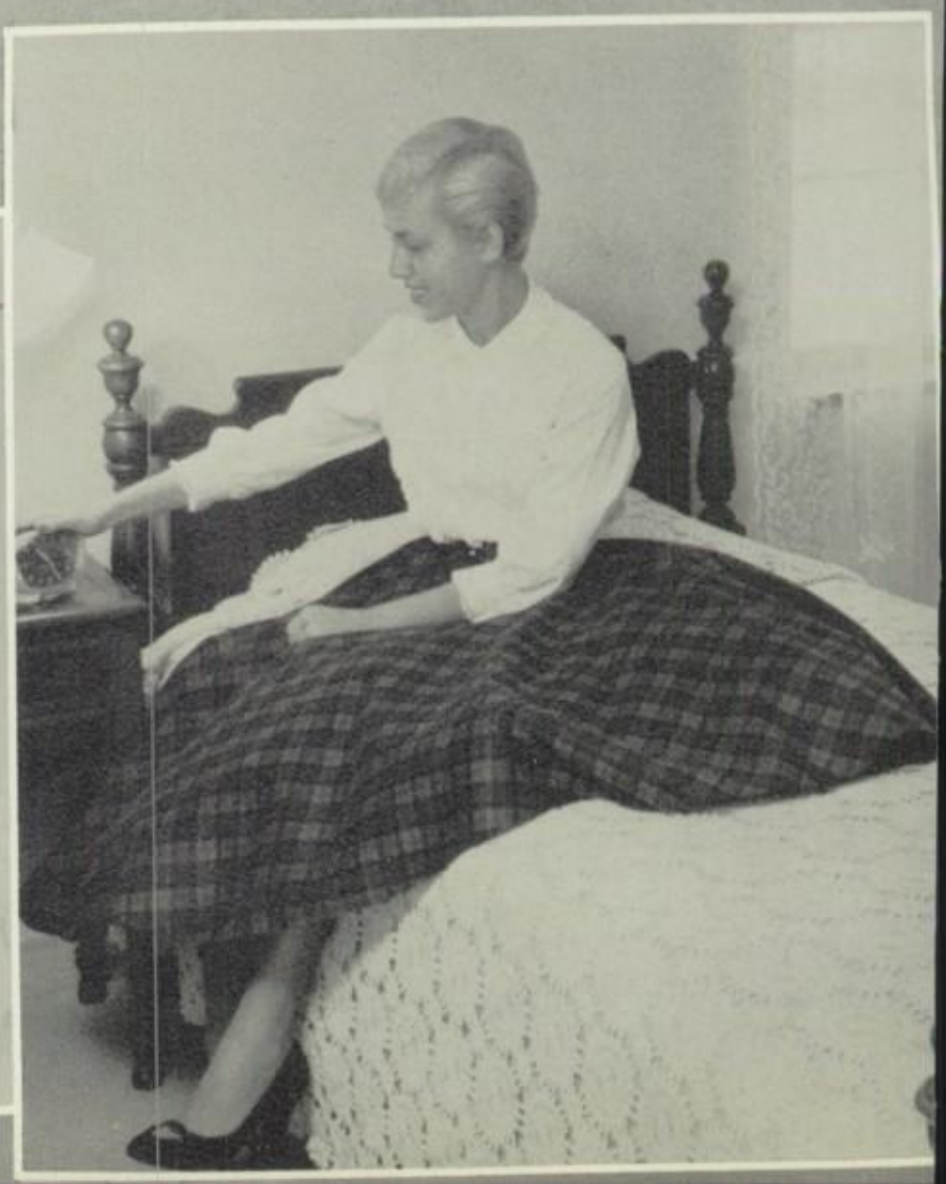


ANITA THOMPSON
"Anita"
She has a natural and wise sincerity
Which has given her dignity.

LAURA ELIZABETH TULLOCH
"Laura"
There's a gleam in her eye
With which the stars cannot vie.

We were noisy in study hall

PATRICIA CLARE UHL
"Pat"
A smile twinkling in her eyes deep blue
A cute little girl friendly and true.



CAROL ANNA UNGER
"Carol"
Carol is cute and has lots to say
She likes to talk and does all day.

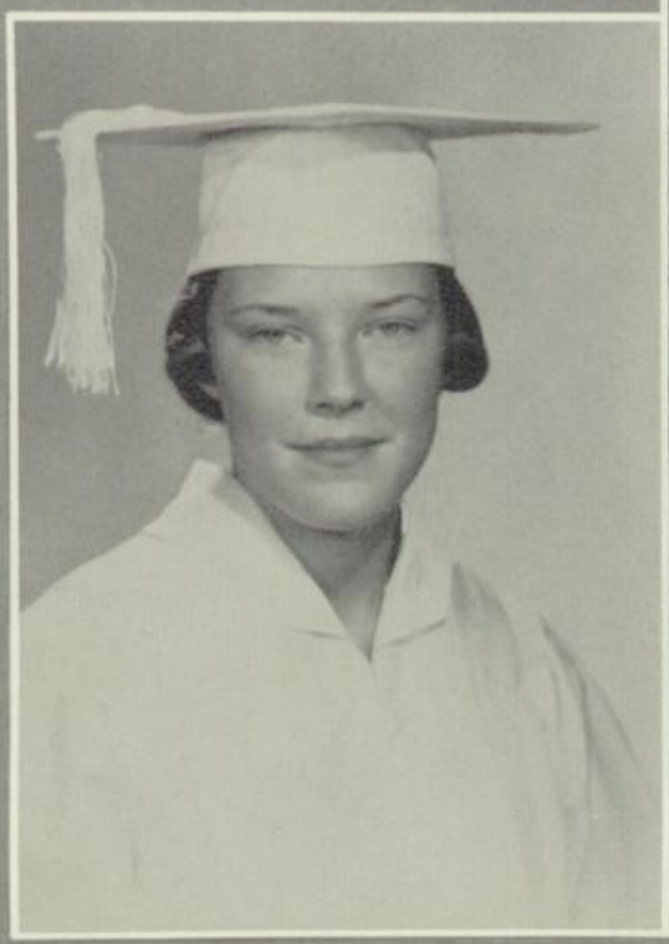
Then we wished later we had studied

MARION ALICE WEHMEIER
"Marion"
Every motion is a grace
Sweet thoughts are mirrored in her face.

CAROL ANN WEHR
"Carol"
A born comedienne without a doubt
Life's never dull when Carol's about.

We practiced for graduation

JO ANN MAYES WEINGART
"Jo Ann"
Always laughing, always true
Whenever Incarnate's colors flew.



JOSEPHINE MADALON VIVIANO
"Jo"
Her personality could do no less
Than win for Jo great success.

We hope we won't trip over our gowns

ELIZABETH VIRGINIA WHALEN
"Betty"
Here is the type that's hard to find
Easy going, carefree and kind.

Moments Through The Day At I. W. A.

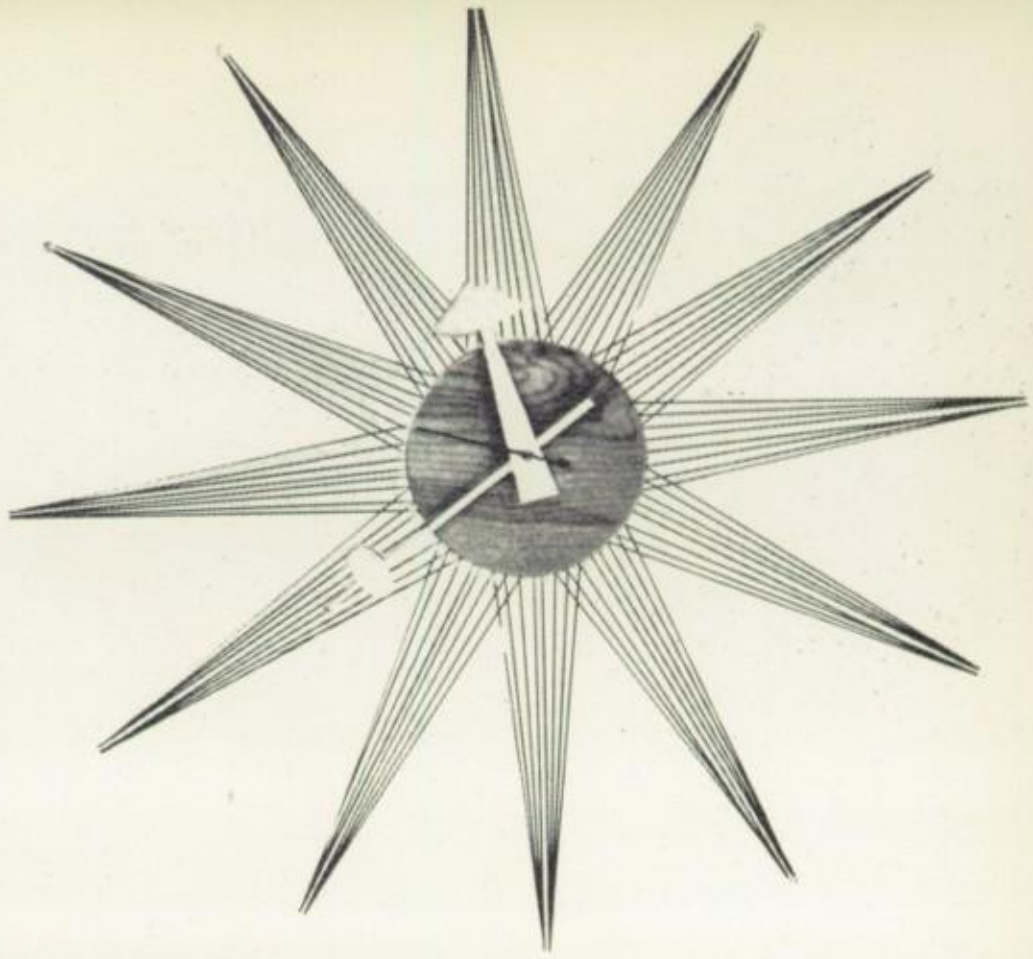
The moments spent with Christ, Our Divine Teacher are very special ones. Here we receive strength and courage to face whatever life brings.

In the daily visit to Our Blessed Mother we share our joys and sorrows with Her who is the Queen of Joy and the Mother of Sorrows.

It's time to change classes—
Three minutes to get from the Main Building to the New Wing! Let's go!



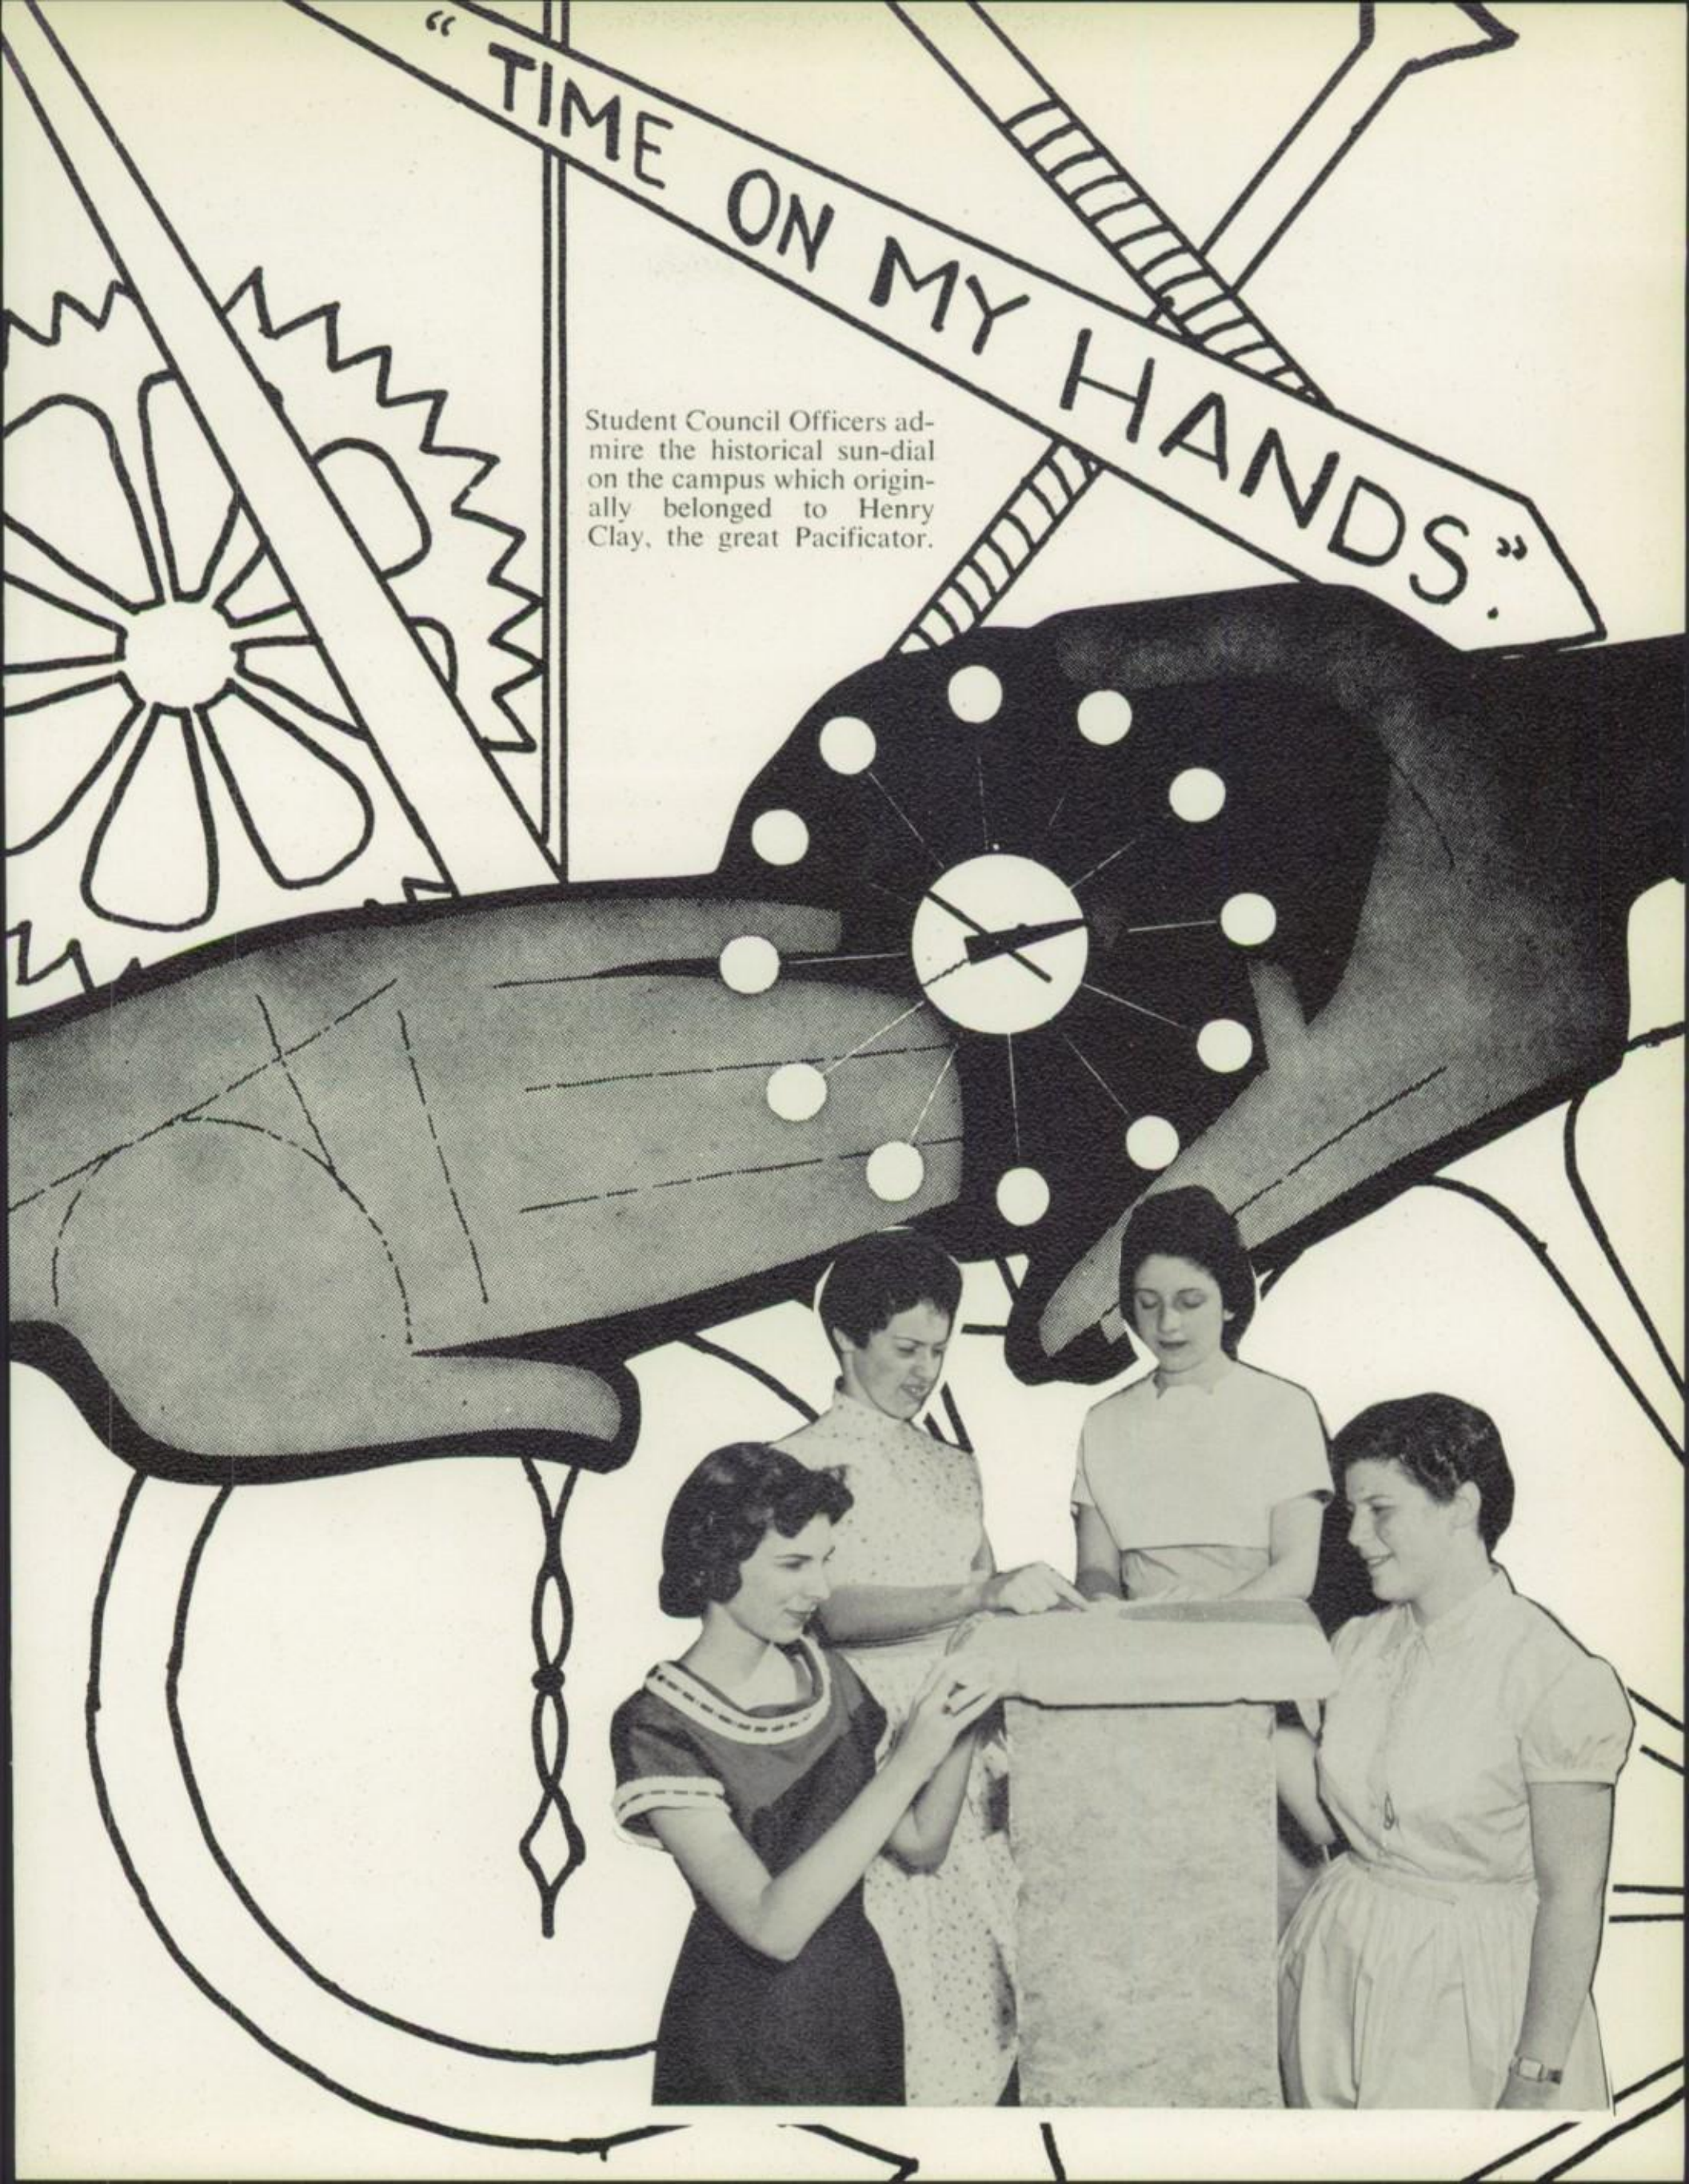
That lecture on the "Voice of the Catholic Press" by John Hellman of the St. Louis Review was great. We've something to talk and think about for days.

LUNCH TIME

"Time to eat! Mrs. Redden certainly knows how to keep us healthy and happy."

"Balanced meals, with an occasional birthday party, make cafeteria moments interesting."

Time for sisters to get together! Here all the sister-acts in school pose for a "how-much-alike" guessing game.



Student Council Officers admire the historical sun-dial on the campus which originally belonged to Henry Clay, the great Pacificator.

" IT'S TIME
TO THANK

THE ADVERTISERS. "

"GIVE THEM YOUR FULL SUPPORT," counsel Bridget Lawler, Kay Quante and Beth Gessner.

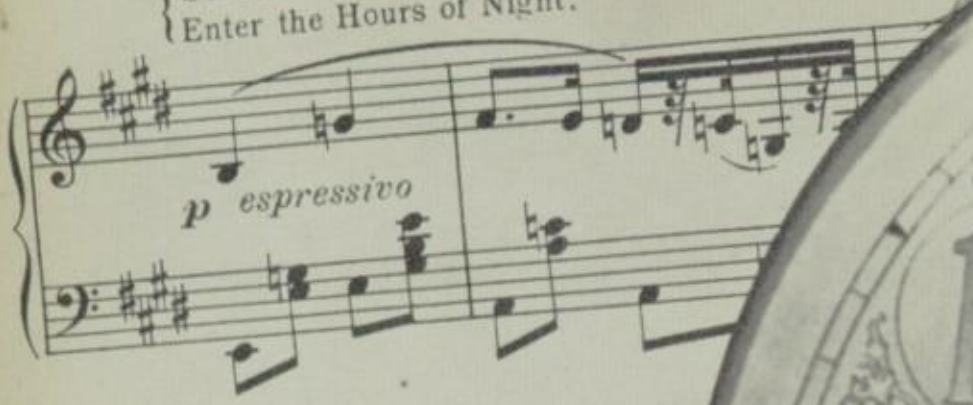
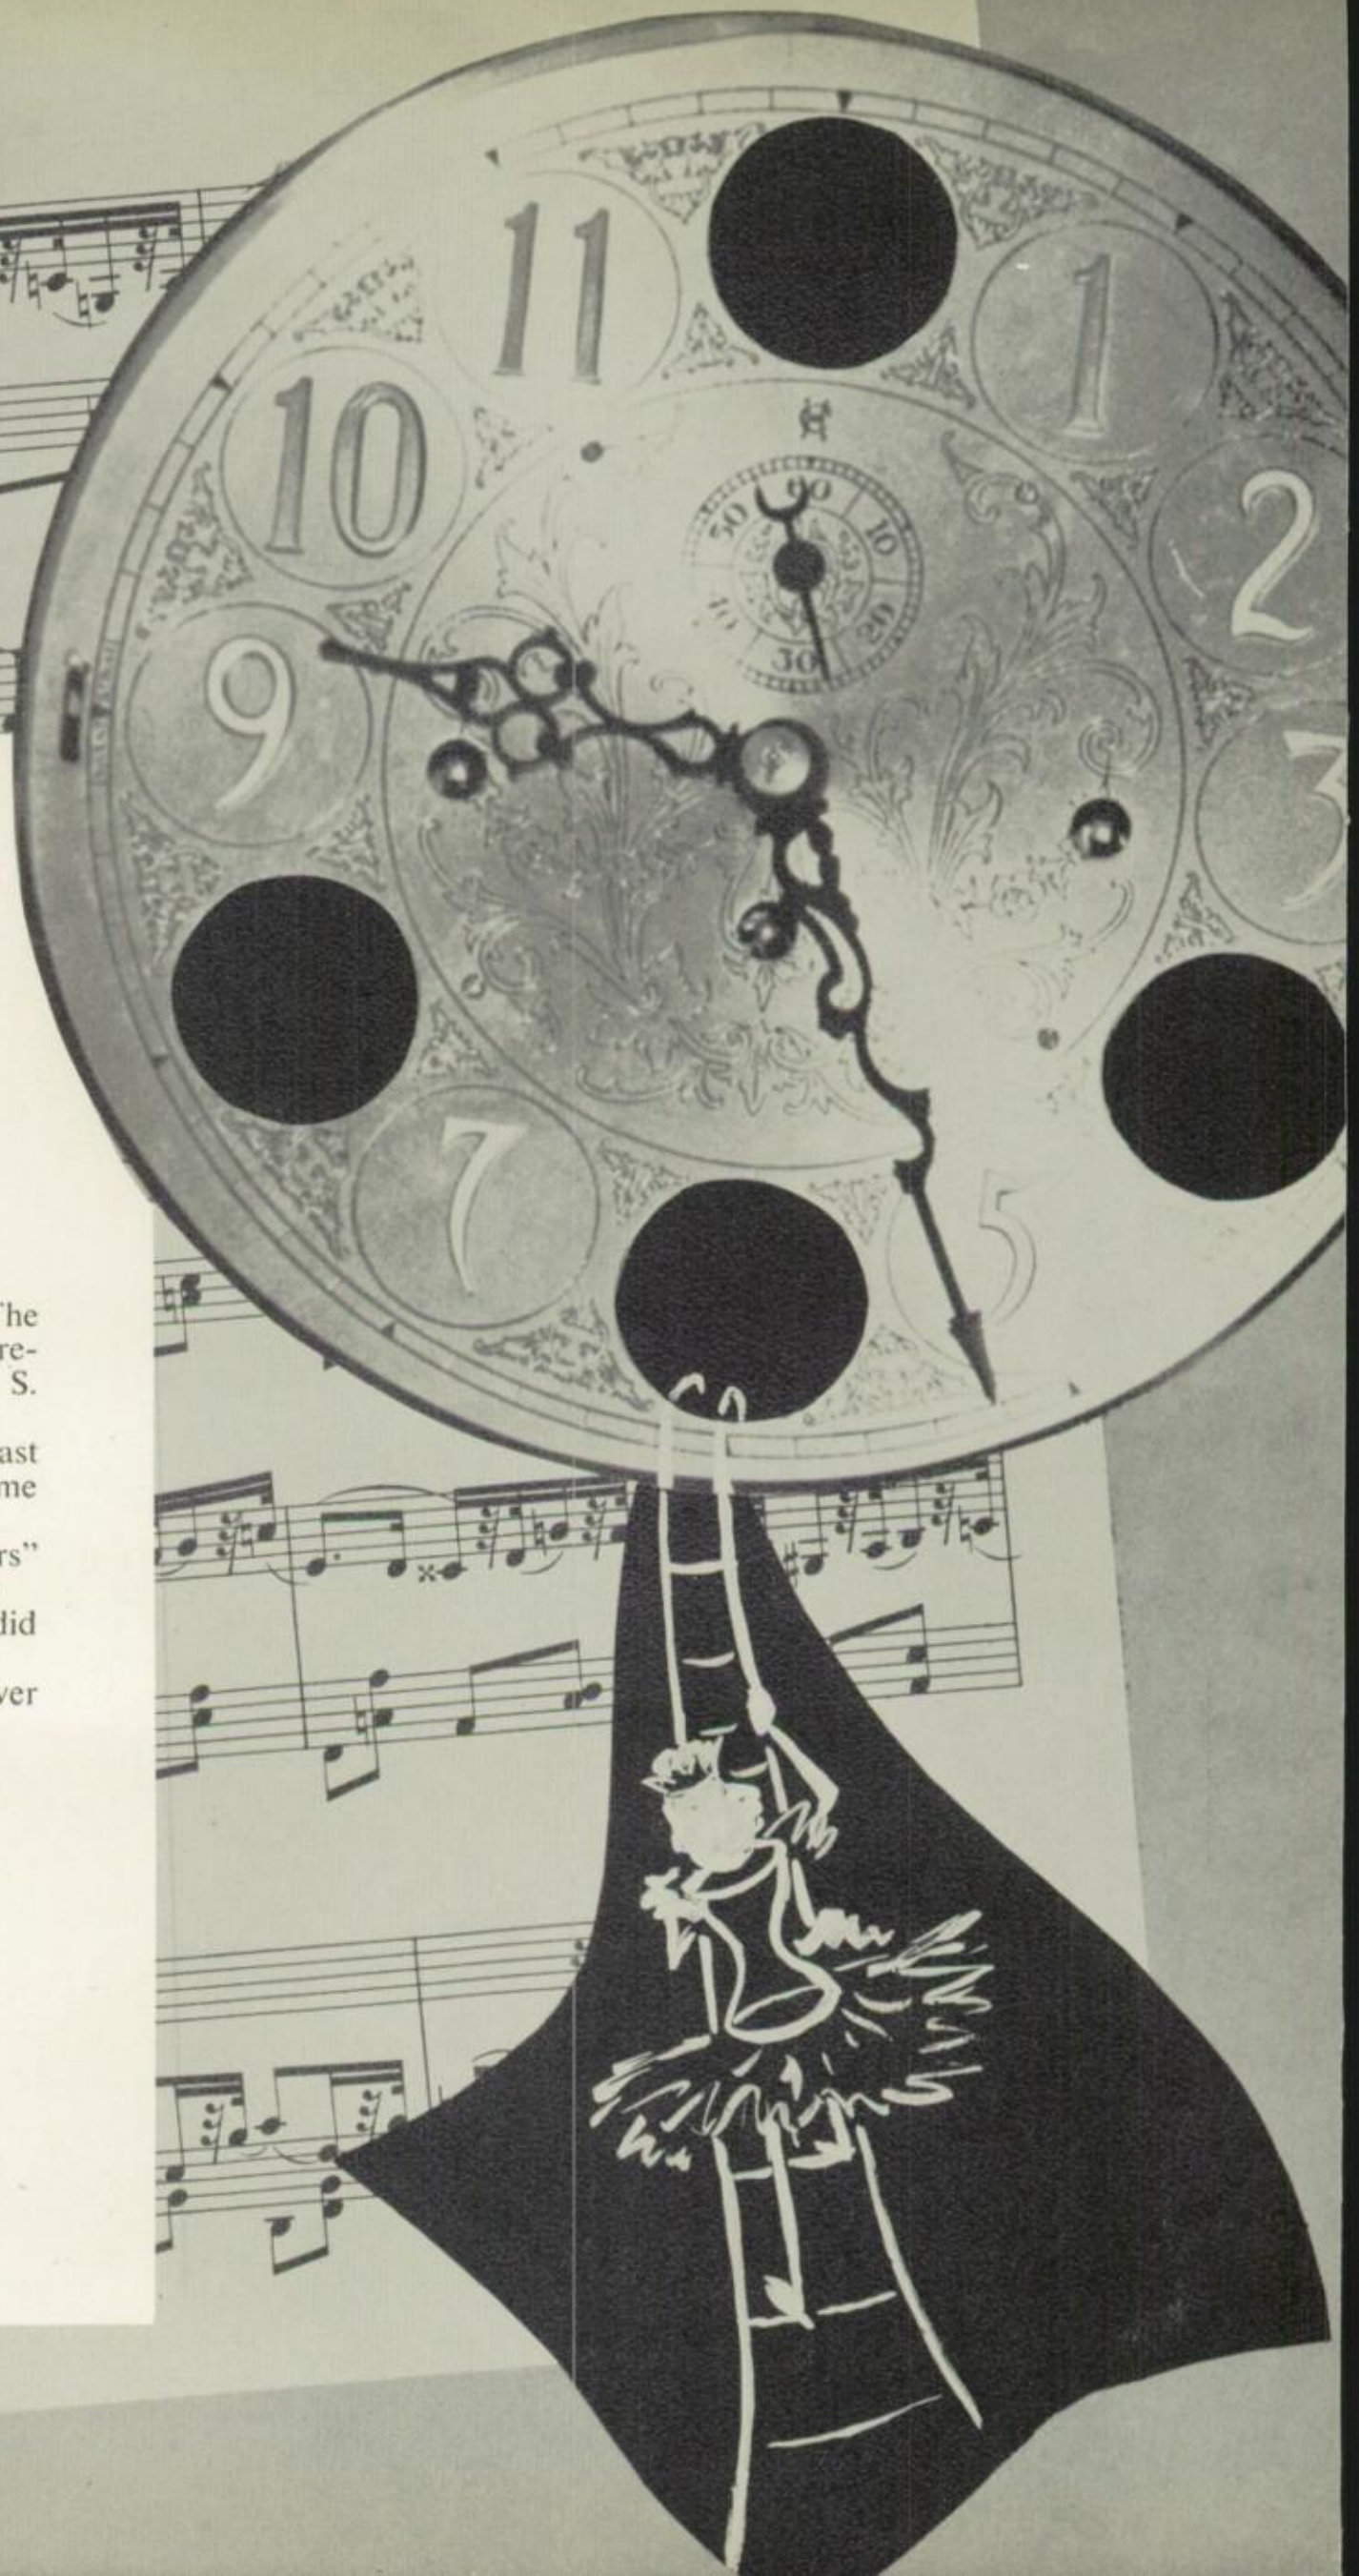
Sortono le Ore della Notte.
Enter the Hours of Night.





So "The Dance" ends. The hours attempt to climb back, remembering the words of T. S. Eliot:

"Time present and time past
Are both perhaps present in time future."
May "The Dance of the Hours"
"echo in the memory
Down the passage which we did not take
Towards the door we never opened
Into the rose-garden."
